GRANTS FROM U. K.

The Leverhulme Trust Fund of the United Kingdom has offered to The Chinese University of Hong Kong a grant of £16,000 ($256,000) to establish an academic interchange programme between The Chinese University and British universities for a period of five years.

The offer was accepted by the University Council on November 30.

The Leverhulme Trust Fund is a well-known British institution with the purpose of promoting scholarship and research in British universities.

This support from a British foundation marks the beginning of developing relations and cooperation between The Chinese University and British universities.

“The grant allows the University complete discretion in inviting scholars of any British university to lecture in The Chinese University and in sending our teaching staff to any British university,” said the Vice-Chancellor.

“The Chinese University has in the past established exchange programmes with many first rate universities in America; the Leverhulme Grant will now enable us to expand our working relations with British universities.”

UNIVERSITY DEANS OF FACULTIES

In accordance with The Chinese University Ordinance, the teaching staff of the university has for the first time elected a Dean for each of the three Faculties of Arts, Science, and Commerce and Social Science. Since many of the professorships and readerships are yet to be appointed, the Senate has resolved that the tenure of office for the Deans during this early period of university development will be one year.

INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION

The Senate, at its meeting on November 2, 1965 discussed at length the reports of the Boards of Studies on the New Teaching Methods (See Bulletin Supplement Volume 1, No. 12—June 1965, and p. 3 of Bulletin Volume 2 No. 2—August 1965). The Vice-Chancellor's summary was tabled.

Matters concerning the Intermediate Examination, to be held at the end of the second year, were resolved as follows:

- (1) The Senate took note of the views expressed by members as to the nature of this examination and agreed that it should be a test of a candidate's general education, his ability to benefit from his course of studies in the University, and his working knowledge of some of the basic principles in the subject field, and that it should not be a test of competence in course work.
- (2) The Senate, in consideration of the views expressed, resolved that the examination should be composed of two parts: Part I consisting of one paper on Chinese Language and one on English Language; and Part II consisting of one paper on the major subject, one on the minor subject and one on an elective field of studies.

- (3) The Senate agreed that out of the five papers in the Examination the elective paper should be on a subject to be chosen by the student. It might well be a paper on General Education.
- (4) The Senate agreed that passing the examination in both parts was necessary before a student could be admitted to the third year, and that there should be no supplementary examination.
- (5) The Senate agreed that, in order to reduce the number of examinations, Boards of Studies should make recommendations to Colleges as to what course examinations could be eliminated and that it should be left to the Colleges to make the final decision.
- (6) The Senate agreed that the examination should be held at each of the Colleges and that the questions set for the same subject should be identical for all the Colleges and might include a number of elective questions not to exceed 15 percent of the total number of questions set for that paper.
- (7) The Senate agreed that the examination should be held for the first time in 1967, as it was felt that to introduce it in 1966 would be unfair to the present second year students who had not been informed of this examination before.
- (8) As to the proper authority to organize and to conduct the Inter-mediate Examination, the Senate resolved that the Undergraduate Examinations Board (formerly the Degree / Diploma Board) should be entrusted with all the responsibilities connected with the conduct of this examination.

中期考試

關於新教學法問題（參閱一九六五年六月校刊第一卷第十二期之增刊及一九六五年八月校刊第二卷第二期第三頁），大學教務會於一九六五年十一月二日根據各系務委員會之報告書作詳盡討論。

有關於（二年級學期終結時）中期考試事項，其決議如下：

（一）大學教務會於聆取各委員之意見後，同意是項中期考試之目的乃為測驗考生之普通教育程度及其對大學各課程之領悟能力、與其對於科目範圍內若干基本原则知否如何運用，是項考試絕非藉以測驗考生對課程工作是否熟練。

（二）大學教務會於參考各委員意見後，決意將是項考試分為兩部份：第一部份包括中文及英文試卷各一，第二部份包括主修科、副修科、及選科之試卷各一。

（三）大學教務會同意該五項試卷中，選科之試卷必須係測驗考生選擇者之科目，可能是通才教育之試卷。

（四）大學教務會同意凡學生在上述兩部份之考試均獲合格後，始可升入三年級。除上述考試外，將不另設其他考試。

（五）大學教務會同意為減少考試次數起見，各系務會應向各學院當局建議何科之考試可予減

免，由各學院自行作最後之決定。

（六）大學教務會同意該項考試可在各學院舉辦，但各學院同一科目之試題必須相同，試卷中可能包括若干選科試題，但不超過全部試題百分之十五。

（七）大學教務會同意鑑於目前之二年級學生尚未知有是項考試，如於一九六六年實施，殊欠公允。因此決定於一九六七年開始舉辦中期考試。

（八）關於主持中期考試問題，大學教務會決議交由「學生考試委員會」（前稱「學位文憑委員會」）負責處理一切有關該項考試事宜。
