GRADUATE SCHOOL TO COMMENCE IN AUTUMN

The Chinese University of Hong Kong will introduce two-year post-graduate courses in the next academic year leading to the Master's Degree in the following study areas: Chinese History, Chinese Philosophy, Chinese Linguistics and Literature, Geography, and Business Administration. With the exception of the area of Geography, which will admit only students of Chinese Geography, Economic Geography and Cultural Geography, all areas are open to students of any field which falls within them.

Whereas the area of Business Administration takes only graduates from the University's three Colleges, the other areas are open to graduates of all approved universities. Students who are not yet graduates but will obtain their first degrees during this academic year may apply.

All the University's graduate students will pay a fee of $800 a year. In addition, caution money of $100 will be charged and refunded on the termination of the students' studies after their liabilities, if any, have been discharged. Students of Geography will also be charged $350 a year for the costs of their scientific equipment.

A policy-making organ for the University's graduate study, known as the Graduate Council, has been set up. Members of the Council are: the Vice-Chancellor (Chairman), Presidents of the three Colleges, all the Professors and Deans of the Faculties.

THE LINGNAN INSTITUTE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

An institute of research and graduate study in Business Administration will be established in this University in summer this year.

The institute, financed with generous donations from the Lingnan University Board of Trustees in New York, will be named The Lingnan Institute of Business Administration. Formal inauguration of the Institute will take place in the Theatre of the City Hall on 23rd September, 1966. The President of the Board will fly to Hong Kong from New York for the occasion.

Negotiations between the Board and the University were started some years ago by the Board and Chung Chi College before the University came into being. After its establishment in 1963 with Chung Chi College as one of its constituent colleges, the University took over the negotiations. The Institute will be under the direct administration of the University, in line with the University's policy that all academic research and post-graduate training in the University should be conducted on a university-wide basis.

The Lingnan University Board of Trustees will donate to the Chinese University an amount of money up to about $360,000 (US$63,000) as the Institute's operation costs during its first year of existence. During the next two years, the Institute will receive from the Board up to $285,000 (US$50,000) per annum.

Professor Maurice Moonitz of the University of California, a world authority on Business Administration, especially on accounting, will become the first Director of the Institute. He is now in charge of the Ph.D. programme of the California University's post-graduate studies of Business Administration, but will come to Hong Kong to take up residence some time next fall. He will be assisted by two of the professors from the University of California successively, each serving one semester. At the same time, professors and other teaching staff members in the University's other social sciences disciplines will also take part in the Institute's teaching programme. As Professor Moonitz's term of service in the Chinese University is that of a visiting professor, the University is looking for a professor to fill the Chair of Business Administration permanently. He will, like Professor Moonitz, be the Institute's Director at the same time.

The Institute will commence its graduate courses in the next academic year beginning in September, 1966, when up to six graduates from the University's colleges will be admitted for study course leading to the degree of Master of Commerce. A number of fellowships will also be provided by the Institute.

An Advisory Board has been set up to enable the Institute to establish and maintain close contacts not only with the local business and industrial communities in Hong Kong, but also with academic people in business administration abroad. The membership of the Advisory Board is as follows:-

The Hon. Sidney S. Gordon

Member of the University Council (Chairman)

The Hon. G.R. Ross

Chairman of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce

SUMMER ENGLISH COURSE

The University will offer an intensive English course designed primarily for the benefit of incoming students and to be held the month prior to the opening of the regular fall term.

This course will be compulsory for all incoming students unless exempted by the authorities of any one of the three Foundation Colleges. A prime purpose of the course is to help raise the standard of English of incoming students, so that they can more readily deal with the English required in their studies.

This university-wide course is an outgrowth of similar courses given during the past two years at New Asia College and last summer at United College. It is unusual in several respects.

First, the course is intensive. Students will have 100 hours of class work packed into a four-week period. There will be five fifty-minute periods a day, five days a week. It is expected that more can be accomplished in this short span of time than during a regular term because the students will be concentrating exclusively on English.

Secondly, the course will focus upon the oral-aural aspect of English. Intensive classroom work in this area backed up with daily drill in the language laboratory is now generally agreed by linguistics experts to be an extremely effective means of teaching a language.

The course will also concentrate on raising the level of the students' reading ability as well as writing skill.

In order that each class may have no more than fifteen students, the University will engage a number of local part-time teachers. Teachers will be required to participate in a preliminary week's briefing session starting on approximately July 27.

Classes will probably start about August 3 and continue through August 31 depending on the date the Colleges complete their selection of students. Each College will offer its own course which will be the same in purpose and essentially the same in content.

Dr. the Hon. C.Y. Kwan, Chairman of the University Council, has contributed $5,000 and Hang Seng Bank $50,000 towards meeting the deficit, expected to be as much as $50,000, which the course will run into. Student fees will be $80 for the entire course.

SUMMER LECTURES OF THE ECONOMIC RESEARCH CENTRE

Repeating similar performances last summer, the Economic Research Centre of the University will sponsor a series of public lectures by visiting economists from foreign universities and international organizations, who are coming to Hong Kong for their summer holidays this year.

Tentative plans are being made for these public lectures to be given, either at the auditoriums of the Constituent Colleges or in the lecture-rooms of the City Hall.

The first speaker will be Professor Shun-Hsin Chou from the University of Pittsburgh, who is well-known for his research on the theory of inflation. He will lecture on inflation and fiscal policy, at the auditorium of New Asia College on Thursday, 9th June, at 11:00 a.m.

Dr. T.C. Chang, a prominent expert on trade analysis now in charge of programming and projections at the United Nations Headquarters in New York, will come to Hong Kong in June or July. A seminar will be arranged for him to meet fellow economists in Hong Kong, probably on a topic within the field of long-term projections of world economy.

The next visitor is Dr. Chungtse Shih, formerly Director of the Commercial Policy Training Programme of GATT in Geneva and now Director of the GATT Economic Development Division. He will speak on the role of GATT in world trade promotion, with particular emphasis on the expansion of trade of the developing countries and the participation of East European countries in GATT.

Dr. Anthony Tang, Professor of Economics at Vanderbilt University in Tennessee, U.S.A. and an agricultural economist of international standing, will be invited to lecture on "Agriculture in Economic Development", a question very pertinent to most Asian countries.

Among the latest to arrive this summer will be Dr. S.C. Yang, who is also External Examiner to the Department of Economics of this University. Dr. Yang is an expert on world trade and finance, and is now a professor in the Economic Development Institute of the World Bank in Washington. He will conduct a seminar on problems of economic development.

Places and dates of the lectures other than that by Professor Chou will be announced later. Lectures by other visiting economists will be announced from time to time.

CHUNG CHI PRESIDENT ON TOUR

Dr. C.T. Yung, President of Chung Chi College, is now on a trip to Lebanon, the United Kingdom and the United States. He represents the University and his College on the occasion of the centennial celebrations of the American University at Beirut. He has also been invited by the British Council to visit the new institutions and universities interested in Chinese studies in the United Kingdom. After his visit to the United Kingdom, Dr. Yung will fly to the United States to attend the Presidents Conference of the United Board for Christian Higher Education in Asia (Jun 14-19 at Berea College, Kentucky) and the Quadrennial Convocation of Christian Colleges (June 19-23 at Earlham College, Indiana). While in America, he will visit the Chung Chi alumni in various parts of the country,

Dr. Yung, accompanied by Mrs. Yung, left Hong Kong for Beirut, Lebanon, on May 8th by PAA. and will return on July 15th. Mr. R.N. Rayne, Vice-President, acts for the President during his absence.

SOCIAL WORK SCHOLARSHIPS AND BURSARIES

The following social work scholarships/bursaries are available in the academic year 1966/67 to third-year and fourth-year Social Work students in the University:

GIFT FROM ITALY

A beautiful bronze bust of Dante Alighieri was presented by Dr. Luigi Bolla, Italian Consul-General in Hong Kong, to Dr. Choh-Ming Li, Vice-Chancellor of the University, at a brief ceremony held on Friday, May 6, at 4:30 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Central Office. The ceremony was attended by many distinguished people from the local Italian community, members of the University Council, and senior members of the staff of the University.

The gift is an acknowledgment from the Italian Government of the University's contribution to learning and a token to commemorate the 700th anniversary of the poets' birth. This noble artistic work will be put temporarily in the Conference Room of the University Central Office until the completion of the University campus at Ma Liu Shui. It will eventually be displayed in the University Library. Many distinguished guests attended the ceremony, after which tea and refreshments were served.

英語速成班

本大學當局頃宣佈，將於下學期秋季始業前一個月開辦英語速成班，以利錄取新生進修。所有新生，除經任何一成員學院之當局准許免修者外，均須進修該項課程。因錄取各生係自中文中學畢業者居多，故該項課程之首要目的，在提高新生之英文程度，使其於入學後對三間學院使用英文之各項課程，更易修習。

過去兩年內，新亞書院曾開辦此項英語班。去年暑期，聯合書院亦曾設有類似之英語班。今由大學當局主辦此項課程，各新生俱有參加之機會。該項英語課程之特點有二：第一為加緊速成。普通一百小時之功課，將於四個星期內全部講授完畢。授課時間，每週

五日，每日五節，每節五十分鐘。各生在此短暫時間內，專攻英語一科，預計其收效將較一學期之進修為更宏。第二為着重聽講。各生每日除於課室內加緊進修功課外，尚須在語言實驗室中練習。此法業經語言學家公認為教授語言之絕佳方法。

同時，該課程將力求提高學生對英文之閱讀理解能力與寫作技能。因每班學生人數不擬超過十五人，故本大學須聘請校外富有經驗之教師多人授課。各教師

經濟研究中心舉辦暑期學術演講

首先，周舜莘教授將於六月九日（星期四）上午十一時在新亞書院大禮堂以「通貨膨脹及財政政策」為題，發表演講。周教授現任教於美國畢士堡大學，為著名之通貨膨脹理論研究專家。

其他應邀演講者尚有下列諸氏：

張自存博士為貿易問題分析專家，現任職於紐約聯合國總部，主管世界經濟計劃之研究工作。張博士將於六七月間抵港，準備主持一項討論會，與本港經濟學家共同研討，題目暫定為「世界經濟長期發展計劃」。

時中策博士曾任日內瓦國際貿易總處之商業政策訓練處主任，現任國際貿易總處經濟發展處主任。渠將主講「國際貿易總處如何促進世界貿易」一題，尤着重新興國家之貿易擴展，及東歐國家參加國際貿易總

須於七月二十七日起，以一星期之時間，集體聽講，準備授課。現各班暫定於八月三日左右開始，八月三十一日結業，但開課日期仍須視各學院招生工作完成之日期而定。各班將分設於各學院，但教學之目的及內容則完全一致。此項速成班所需經費甚鉅，不敷之數，業蒙本大學校董會主席關議員祖堯博士慨捐五千元，恆生銀行慨捐五萬元，以資彌補。全期學費，現定為每生港幣八十元。

處各問題。

唐安東尼博士為著名之農業經濟專家，現任美國田納西州凡登貝爾特大學經濟學教授，將主講「經濟發展中之農業」一題，此問題對亞洲之多數國家至關重要。

楊叔進博士為世界貿易與財政專家，現任華盛頓世界銀行經濟發展研究所教授，並為本大學經濟系之校外考試委員。楊教授於抵港後將主持一項討論會，研討有關國際經濟發展各問題。

嶺南工商管理研究所將告成立

在紐約之嶺南大學校董會慨捐，故該研究所亦將命名為「嶺南工商管理研究所」，其正式成立典禮已定於本年九月二十三日假大會堂劇場舉行。屆時嶺大校董會主席及校董二人將由紐約專程飛港，參加盛典。

遠在本大學成立以前數年，嶺大校董會與崇基學院即已開始商談有關設立該所事宜。俟本校於一九六三年成立，並以崇基學院為成員學院之一，是項商談乃改由大學當局繼續進行。該研究所將由大學當局直接管理，蓋凡屬學術研究以及有關研究生之訓練各問題，概由大學就整個立場處理；此為本大學之既定方針。

嶺南大學校董會將捐贈該研究所美金六萬三千元，約合港幣三十六萬元，作為該所第一年之經費。以後兩年內每年仍繼續捐助美金五萬元，約合港幣二十八萬五千元。

加利福尼亞州大學之蒙尼芝教授，將出任該研究所首任所長。蒙氏為世界工商管理之權威，尤以在會計學方面為然。渠現在加州大學工商管理研究院主持博士學位之課程，但將於本年秋季來港就任。尚有加州大學教授二人，將相繼來港協助蒙氏，每人任職一個學期。同時本大學社會科學各系講座教授及其他教師，亦將有多人在該所授課。蒙尼芝教授為本大學之客座教授，故本校已開始物色人材，充任工商管理學講座教授，並兼任該研究所所長之職。
