THE SEAL OF THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

On the day of Installation of the First Vice-Chancellor, an official seal was presented to the Vice-Chancellor by the Chancellor, Sir David Trench. The seal bearing a Chinese inscription of "The Seal of the Vice-Chancellor of the Chinese University" was designed and engraved by Mr. Chao Ho-chin, part-time Lecturer of New Asia College (see cut in Chinese section of this issue), written in the clerical style of Ch'in Dynasty.

The Seal stands about four and a half inches in height with the University emblem, "The Bird of the South" or "Feng", stoupig on top. It weighs three and a half pounds and the base of the seal is two and one-inch square.

The University motto, "Po Wei Yuch Li", was carved and lettered in the style of the Warring States on one side of the Seal. The design on the other sides show the year of the dragon, the University motto and "the seal of the Vice-Chancellor". (See cuts)

COLLEGE REPORTS

Village Research

The Department of Sociology and Social Work has been carrying out a research project in Tai Po Tsu Village which is situated near the College. This project is a scheme worked out between Dr. C. K. Yang of the University of Hawaii and Mr. S. L. Wong, Chairman of the Department. While Mr. Wong is in charge of the project, Dr. Yang has agreed to serve as adviser.

Since the beginning of this semester a study centre has been established in the village. About 30 students, divided into five groups, are taking active part in the project.

The project is supported by the Asia Foundation.

Electronics Trainer at United College

The Philips Company has presented the United College with an electronics trainer machine of the value of over $60,000 to promote instruction in Electronics.

The electronics trainer machine is used as visual aid for Electronics teaching and obviate all necessity for blackboard demonstration.

The United College had made a survey of the needs of electronic engineers in Hong Kong two years ago and has since been developing Electronics Courses at the College with the hope of establishing in the near future a Department of Electronics.
