OPENING CEREMONY OF THE INTER-UNIVERSITY HALL

The Inter-University Hall of this University was formally opened by His Excellency the Chancellor, Sir David Trench K.C.M.G., M.C., in a brief ceremony on November 19, 1966. The Chancellor cut the ribbon in the presence of about 200 guests and senior members of the University.

In his address, His Excellency emphasized the importance of inviting visiting scholars to the University. After his address, the Vice-Chancellor, Dr. C.M. Li spoke, explaining the meaning of the Chinese name of the Hall, Po Wen Yuan (博文苑).

The Hall, a 6-storied building covering an area of 23,200 sq. ft. on the campus of Chung Chi College with a car park on the lower ground floor, is the first building ever erected by the University. It houses the Lingnan Institute of Business Administration and the University’s Economic Research Centre. It also provides office space for the University of California Study Centre. In addition, there are eight 2-bedroom apartments for accommodating visiting scholars and their families.

GIFTS TO THE UNIVERSITY

(1) The McDouall Scholarship Fund
The University received on October 31, 1966 from the Hon. J.C. McDouall, the retiring Secretary for Chinese Affairs, a cheque for HK$160,000 which represented the McDouall Scholarship Fund for setting up scholarships to promote the study of Chinese Literature and History in The Chinese University. The Fund was donated by the Chinese community in Hong Kong in commemoration of Mr. McDouall’s service to the Chinese people in Hong Kong. Only the interest accruing from the Fund will be used. The scholarships will be fairly distributed, as far as possible, among the three Foundation Colleges of the University. Both undergraduates and postgraduates of Chinese Literature or History are eligible for the awards.

(2) American Assistance for Building the University’s Student Centre
In a brief but impressive ceremony on November 2, 1966, Dr. C.M. Li, Vice-Chancellor of the University, received a pledge of funds from the people of the United States to be used for the construction of a Student Centre on the new University campus. In the Vice-Chancellor’s office, Dr. Li and American Counsel General Edward E. Rice signed an agreement under which the U.S. Far East Refugee Program will provide US$300,000 for the construction of the Centre. As part of the same ceremony, Mr. Edgar N. Pike, on behalf of The Asia Foundation, presented Dr. Li with a cheque for US$57,000 as an additional contribution toward the construction of the Student Centre.

ADVISOR FOR CAMPUS PLANNING

At the invitation of Dr. C.M. Li, Vice-Chancellor of the University, Dr. I.M. Pei, an internationally famed architect, made a special trip to Hong Kong to advise the Vice-Chancellor on site planning for the University campus on November 21. He inspected the University’s campus site at Shatin on November 22. During his sojourn here, Dr. Pei worked closely with the University Architect, the Hon. Szeto Wei, and Dr. R.C. Lee, Chairman of the University’s Campus Planning Committee.

A resident in the United States, Dr. Pei is one of the top architects in the world. His artistic creation includes the East-West Centre of the University of Hawaii, the Tunghai University in Taiwan, the M.I.T. Earth Science Centre and the M.I.T. Chemistry Centre, both in Cambridge, Massachusetts, the City Hall of Dallas, the U.S. National Centre of Atmospheric Research in Colorado, the Everson Museum in Syracuse, the General Electric Centre of Metallurgy in Albany, the American Life Insurance Company in Wilmington, Delaware, the Faculty Hall for the Housing Department of New York University, the Headquarters Building for the Washington Post at Washington D.C., the Polaroid Corporation in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and others. He was recently commissioned to be the architect for the Kennedy Centre at Harvard University.

Dr. Pei is a member of the Advisory Committee on Arts and Architecture, John F. Kennedy Memorial Library, and a key person in the redevelopment projects in New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, Pittsburgh and New Haven. He is also the inventor of Helix systems for apartment houses.

Dr. Pei’s report to the Vice-Chancellor is expected to be of great value to the development of the University campus site.

URBAN STUDY CENTRE SET UP IN THE UNIVERSITY

The University has recently set up an Urban Study Centre. Mr. C.C. Hu, Senior Lecturer and Head of the Department of Sociology, and Dr. James Beaudry, Lecturer in Sociology, both at United College, have been appointed Director and Associate Director respectively.

The Centre, located at United College, is to provide training opportunities in field work for sociology students, and to conduct research on urban social structure and development in Hong Kong. The activities of the Centre will be coordinated with the work of the Village Research Centre at Chung Chi and the University’s Social Survey Research Centre.

The Asia Foundation has generously made a grant of HK$7,551.20 for the establishment of the Centre.

DR. PHILIP M. HAUSER’S PUBLIC LECTURE

On November 4, a public lecture under the auspices of the University on “Implications of World Population Trends” was given by Dr. Philip M. Hauser at New Asia College. The lecture was attended by many members of the public and a large group of social workers in Hong Kong, besides a great number of the University’s students and staff members.

Dr. Hauser, a Ph.D. at the University of Chicago, is Director of the Population Research and Training Centre at the University of Chicago and President of the American Sociological Association. He first taught at the University of Chicago, and in later years successively held the posts of Walker-Ames Professor at the University of Washington and Visiting Ford Professor at Indiana University. He has also been, for many years, statistical consultant to various boards and commissions on population and vital statistics and the director of various population research centres.

Dr. Hauser is a member of the American Statistical Association, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Sociological Society, and the American Philosophical Society.

In the lecture, Dr. Hauser surveyed the general population problem and suggested birth control to be the only effective solution.

LAW CONFERENCE AND WORKING PARTY

Dr. Shou-sheng Hsieh, Reader in Public Administration assigned to United College, and Dr. K.H. Hwang, Assistant Registrar of the University, have been invited to participate in the Conference on International Law to be held in Hong Kong at the beginning of January next year.

The Conference, co-sponsored by the University of Hong Kong and the Institute of International Studies of the University of the Philippines, will be attended by international lawyers from many Asian countries (including Ceylon, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Nepal, Pakistan, the Philippines, Singapore and Thailand). Three main topics will be discussed at the Conference: the State and Foreign Investments, Succession, and Pacific Settlement of International Disputes.

Dr. Hwang, who is a Barrister-at-law, also represents the Vice-Chancellor at a working party appointed by Sir Michael Hagan, the Chief Justice of Hong Kong, to consider and report whether it is desirable and practicable to provide in Hong Kong, if possible through collaboration with the Universities, the teaching and training which would enable a candidate to qualify for admission as a barrister to the Bar in Hong Kong without the necessity of proceeding overseas; whether the existing facilities for solicitors to obtain their qualifications without proceeding overseas are satisfactory, and, in particular, whether there should be any additional training or examination in the laws of Hong Kong.

The working party is led by the Hon. Sir Ivo Rigby, the Senior Puissance Judge, the Attorney-General of Hong Kong, the Hong Kong Bar Association, the Hong Kong Law Society and both local Universities are represented.

RECENT DEVELOPMENT OF THE E.M.S.D.
The Department of Extramural Studies of the University starts off this new term on an encouraging note. Enrolment for the main autumn programme shows signs of greater strength than the corresponding period last year. The total enrolment from April, 1966 to date is 5,290 as compared with 2,922 for the same period last year.

The number of courses, too, has increased from 81 for autumn 1965 to 124 this autumn. Besides Hotel Management, three other Certificate Courses have been instituted, namely, Advanced Translation, Tourist Guiding and Social Welfare.

Forty-nine out of a total of sixty-two applicants were admitted into the Hotel Management Course, the first certificate course of the Department. A part-time Executive Assistant (a Cornell University Hotel Management graduate) has been appointed to administer the course, which started on September 19.

The course in Advanced Translation is designed for persons who, having attained considerable proficiency in Chinese and English, desire to gain advanced techniques in translation, in order to improve their professional competence.

The Tourist Guiding course is the first step for those who wish to make travel business their career. It is also for in-service Tourist Guides who wish to advance their own competence. This course is organized in collaboration with the Hong Kong Association of Travel Agents.

The programme of the Social Welfare course is organized in collaboration with the Advisory Committee on Social Work Training and is designed to prepare social workers for increased responsibility in staff supervision.

Out in the New Territories, the Programme for Tsuen Wan has a very good response. Over 316 persons have so far enrolled in 10 courses which are being conducted in the Tsuen Wan Government Secondary School.

Two Extramural Assemblies (one in Chinese and the other in English) have been held at the Empress Hotel to familiarize the extramural instructors with the new methods and as well as the modern trends of University Adult Education. Among the topics discussed in the Assemblies were: (1) Principles and aims of University Adult Education, (2) Methods in University Adult Education, (3) Administration, and (4) Quality and Standard. Seventy-eight instructors attended the Assemblies which turned out to be a tremendous success.

Professor Maurice Moonitz, Mr. John Espy, Dr. Chen Chia-tsun, and Dr. Sutu Hsin have attended a conference convened by the Hong Kong Management Association at which all bodies undertaking management education and training would discuss the objectives and programmes, both current and future. Professor Moonitz has been requested to draft brief notes on (a) The objectives of the management education programme of this University, (b) Current programme of this University, and (c) The programme for the next three years.

4. Miss Lau Chui Hing (3rd year)

The Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corporation has donated a fund to the University sufficient to bring in an annual income of HK$20,000 to be used for four scholarships awarded to the 3rd and 4th year students in Social Work.

About sixty Geography students of Chung Chi College have participated in the field work for the Urban Land-use Survey and Mapping since the beginning of this term. This project is supervised by Mr. C.S. Liang, the College's Lecturer in Geography, with the assistance of two tutors, Mr. S.F. Leong and Mr. H.Y. Cheung, and it is expected that the survey of Tsimshatsui and Yau Ma Tei districts will be completed before the end of this year.

A Vocal Recital by Helen Sam Lam, a graduate of the Conservatorio di Santa Cecilia, Rome, and the Akademie füri Musik, Vienna, with her husband Mr. Lam Hung-hee at the piano, was given in the evening of November 10 at the Chung Chi College Chapel. Mr. Lam is a piano teacher in the Music Department of the College.

Contestants from the three Foundation Colleges of the University and the Hong Kong & Shanghai Banking Corporation took part in the First Inter-University and Inter-College Judo Contest sponsored by the Student Union of New Asia on November 12. The New Asia team was the winner with the United College team as the runner up.

The eighth annual mountain race of Chung Chi College was held on November 14. A total of 230 students and staff members participated in the event. Chung Chi College had many visitors for the month of November, among them were: Mr. Tej Pratap Singh of the Allahabad Agricultural Institute; Mr. and Mrs. John Seammann of Andover-Newton Theological School, Boston, Massachusetts; Dr. Charles Gloc of the University of California, Berkeley; Professor Edgar F. Westom, Jr., University of Michigan; Dr. Sharon G. Blanding, President Emeritus, Vassar College, Lakeville, Connecticut; Mr. & Mrs. Robert M. Underhill, Vice-President and Treasurer Emeritus, University of California; Mr. Toshiaki Yoshikawa, Ministry of Education, Tokyo; and Mr. Sataku Takahashi of Association of International Education, Tokyo.

Professor Mason Rossmiller Smith, Visiting Professor in Journalism

Professor Mason Rossmiller Smith was born in 1909 in Buffalo, New York, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree cum laude from Amherst College. He has held a variety of journalist posts including those of Legislative Correspondent at Albany for Syracuse, N.Y. Herald, and N.Y. Daily Times, Managing Editor of an English- and Publisher of the N.Y. Lawrence Plain-dealer. He has also been assigned to various parts of Europe and Asia as special correspondent. He was the Chairman of the Weekly Newspaper Editors for Eisenhower-Nixon in 1962. Director of the G.O.P. Weekly Newspaper Bureau, Rockefeller gubernatorial campaign in 1958. He was one of the founders, President and a director of St. Lawrence County (N.Y.) United Fund, Editor of the University of St. Lawrence County Historical Association, and Editor of the publication Quarterly. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the former State Chairman of the National Editorial Association, former President of the New York Press Association, Chairman of Sigma Delta Delta, and a member of the Executive Council of the Professional Society of Journalism in 1957.

Professor Smith was awarded the Wells Memorial Key by Sigma Delta Delta for distinguished service to journalism in 1958. He retired from the printing and publishing business (Mason Rossmiller Smith, Inc., Gouverneur, N.Y.) in July, 1966, and is now Professor of Journalism and Director of the Mass Communications Centre of this University.

Dr. James R. Townsend, Visiting Scholar in Journalism

Dr. James R. Townsend was born in Hastings, Nebraska, U.S.A., and is now teaching in the Journalism Department at New Asia College. He received his B.A. from the University of Omaha, majoring in Government. The M.A. and Ph.D. degrees conferred on him by the University of California, Berkeley, were in recognition of his research on International Relations and Political Science.

He later taught Political Science at the University of California, Berkeley as Teaching Assistant, Acting Assistant Professor and Assistant Professor.

Dr. Townsend has served on the Departmental Graduate Studies Committee, the School of Business Administration (as Lecturer in the Executive Program), the Executive Committee of the Centre for Chinese Studies and the East Asia Training Committee, all of the University of California, Berkeley. He is a member of the Association for Asian Studies and the American Political Science Association. His publications include "Democratic Management in the Rural Communities," in The China Quarterly; "Communist China: The New Protracted War," in the Asia Survey; "Mao and Marxism," Problems of Communism; "The China Giant: Government," Christian Science Monitor; "China Since 1956," and "Communist China: The Early Years," a book review in Problems of Communism.
About 200 science teachers from The Chinese University of Hong Kong and some post-secondary and secondary schools attended the Symposium. A number of Government officials including the Director of the Royal Observatory and several Inspectors of the Education Department were also present.

△ Dr. Andrew Roy, Dr. Philip Shen and Rev. Franklin Woo represented Chung Chi College and Hong Kong at the Ecumenical Strategy Consultation for the Academic World in Asia To-day held at the Fortunat Hotel in Kowloon, jointly sponsored by the World Student Christian Federation and the East Asia Christian Conference. The Consultation lasted from November 6 to 13.

On November 10, approximately 50 members for the Consultation from Australia, Burma, Ceylon, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Singapore, New Zealand, Pakistan (West), Philippines, Taiwan, and Thailand visited Chung Chi College. The guests were entertained at a tea reception held in the Chapel Lounge and followed by a dinner in their honour at the Shatin Floating Restaurant.

△ The Recruitment Examination for the award of a scholarship donated by the Yale-in-China Association was held on November 7 at New Asia College. The successful candidate would acquire an opportunity of pursuing higher studies at a university in the United States.

△ Dr. Peter Fenshen, Senior Lecturer in Chemistry, University of Melbourne, gave a lecture on "Electron Spin Resonance and Its Application in the Research of Catalysis" to the staff and students of the Chemistry Department of Chung Chi College on November 9 in the Physics Lecture Hall.

△ Dr. H.H. Ho, Lecturer in Physics of New Asia College, recently had a paper published in the Proceedings of the Institution of Electrical Engineers in London on "A Sine Wave Silicon Controlled Rectifier Parallel Invertor with Improved Commutation" (Paper No. 378.)

A symposium on the economic position of Hong Kong held on November 23, 1966 at United College. The function was jointly organized by the Economic Societies of New Asia College and United College. Two papers were read at this symposium: "The General Situation of Hong Kong", and "Shanghai Hong Kong and "Should Hong Kong Adopt the Protective Policy?". This was followed by a discussion in which most of the students present took part.

△ The History Society of United College invited Dr. Jerome Chen, Reader in History at the University of Leeds, to deliver a lecture on "The Constitutional Structure of the Governments of Modern China" on November 25, 1966 at the College. This was the first of a series of public lectures sponsored by the Society.

大學已開設城市研究中心

本大學最近開設城市研究中心，並經聯合書院社會學系高級講師兼系主任胡家建先生及該系講師布德利博士（Dr. James Beaudry）分任正副主任。研究中心設於聯合書院，除主持研究本港城市社會之結構及其發展等情況外，並供給研究社會學學生接受實習訓練之機會。研究中心之活動，當與崇基學院之鄉村研究中心及本校之社會調查研究中心配合工作。

亞洲協會最近慨捐港幣七千五百五十一元二角，作為大學開設該研究中心之費用。

大學新校址正式公佈

據香港政府首席助理輔政司一九六六年十一月九日第四十一又六六號之通知：本大學校區之所在地為：『新界沙田』。崇基學院之地址則為：『新界沙田 崇基學院』。

九廣鐵路局局長，對於本大學附近之火車站，正考擬定一適當之站名。『馬料水』一名，將不復作爲本大學校區所在地名稱之一部份矣。
大學校舍計劃顧問訪港

貝聿銘博士為國際知名之建築師，因應本大學李校長卓敏博士之邀，於本月二十一日專程訪港，翌日到沙田大學校區實地勘察校址，並就大學校舍計劃，向李校長提供建議。貝氏留港期間，曾與大學建築師司徒議員及校舍計劃委員會主席利銘澤博士密切商討。

貝博士常用居美，為世界著名傑出建築師之一。凡夏威夷大學之東西文化中心，台灣之東海大學，美國麻省理工學院之地質學硏究中心及化學研究中心，達拉斯之市政廳，卡羅拉多省之美國國家大氣層硏究中心，司拉喬斯之艾勿遜博物院，阿爾賓尼之通用電氣公司金屬學硏究中心，德拉瓦省之友邦保險公司，紐約大學之房屋構造學學院，華盛頓之「華盛頓日報」大廈，麻省劍橋之蒲拉萊特企業公司及其他等等，皆出於貝氏之匠心傑作。近復受聘為哈佛大學之甘迺迪中心建築師。貝氏現任建造甘迺迪紀念圖書館之藝術設計諮詢委員，且為紐約，費城，華盛頓，芝加哥，畢茲堡及新港各都市重振計劃之要角，並發明螺旋形公寓建築方法。

貝博士向大學校長所提供之報告書，對本大學校區之發展，當有極大之裨益。

法律會議及工作小組

國際公法會議，將於明年一月初在本港舉行。聯合書院公共行政學教授薛壽生博士及本大學助理校務主任黃金鴻博士，均將應邀出席。是項會議為香港大學與菲律賓大學國際硏究所共同主辦。出席會議者，將有來自亞洲各國之國際公法專家，包括錫闌，印度，日本，南韓，馬來西亞，尼泊爾，巴基斯坦，菲律賓及泰國等國。會議將討論三項議題：(一)國家與外人投資，(二)繼承及(三)以和平方式解決國際紛爭。

黃博士係大律師，現代表本大學李校長參加香港按察司何瑾爵士所指定之工作小組，硏討應否在香港開設法律課程，及有無可能由本港兩大學合作，使學生能在香港考取大律師資格而不必出國應考；香港現有各項設備，是否足供學生應用俾學生得在香港考取律師資格而無須出國；及應否另外舉行有關香港法律之訓練或考試。

該工作小組由本港副按察司李彼爵士任主席。香港律政司，香港大律師公會，香港律師公會及本港兩大學均有代表出席。該工作小組經舉行兩次會議，現正起草小組報告書。
The Inters-University Hall of this University was formally opened by His Excellency the Chancellor, Sir David Trench K.C.M.G., M.C., in a brief ceremony on November 19, 1966. The Chancellor cut the ribbon in the presence of about 200 guests and senior members of the University.

In his address, His Excellency emphasized the importance of inviting visiting scholars to the University. After his address, the Vice-Chancellor, Dr. C.M. Li spoke, explaining the meaning of the Chinese name of the Hall, Po Wen Yuan (博文院).

The Hall, a 6-storied building covering an area of 23,200 sq. ft. on the campus of Chung Chi College with a car park on the lower ground floor, is the first building ever erected by the University. It houses...
