The scholarships, to be named the American Women's Association Scholarships, are to assist needy students of sufficient academic ability to continue their education where otherwise this would be impossible or financially very difficult.

Three of the scholarships are for the University's Social Work students, one for an Economics student, and five for students in the University's School of Education. One of the scholarships in the last group is equally shared by two students.

THE DR. LI TSOO-YIU SCHOLARSHIP

A cheque for $17,000 was donated to The Chinese University by the Y's Men's Clubs of Hong Kong, Kowloon and Victoria at a joint luncheon meeting of the Club on January 12.

The money will be used to establish a memorial scholarship to be awarded to a student of Chinese in this University in honour of the late Dr. Li Tsoo-Yiu, a medical practitioner, philanthropist and scholar. TEACHING METHODS CONFERENCE

The University held a one-day Conference on Teaching Methods on January 27, 1967, at Chung Chi College. Some 240 teaching staff members of the University took part. The purpose of the Conference was to review the existing practice of holding tutorials and seminars as a medium of teaching and to discuss how far the proposals on teaching methods as approved by the Senate had been implemented.

The Conference was opened by Dr. C.M. Li, the Vice-Chancellor, who summarized the objectives of the teaching methods instituted at the University in 1965. He then introduced Mr. Kenneth Robinson, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Hong Kong, to address the Conference on some fundamental aspects of the tutorial system. After a coffee break, the Conference was divided into three faculty groups. They discussed such problems as inter-collegiate teaching, small group teaching, including tutorials and seminars, reduction of lecturing hours, re-examination of course content, the introduction of new syllabuses, streamlining of all college curricula and de-emphasis of examinations.

In the afternoon session, the Vice-Chancellor took the chair and introduced Mr. Brian Yu of the Shell Oil Company, Hong Kong, to speak on the tutorial system in Cambridge as he had experienced it as an undergraduate in Pembroke College between 1946 and 1949. Mr. Yu also answered questions from the floor.

The Vice-Chancellor then wound up the Conference with brief closing remarks.

After thanking the speaker and the Deans of the three Faculties, Dr. Li remarked that this was the first university-wide conference. He expressed the hope of finding a Teaching Method that would be unique in itself. It should not be a method copied from a western country, but it should embody the best points in different systems.

Dr. Li was quite impressed by Mr. Yu's observation that throughout his experience in Hong Kong and China, the teaching methods in the universities were not dissimilar to those in secondary schools. Dr. Li endorsed Prof. Robinson's idea that the essential function of university education is not so much the transmission of knowledge or skills as the communication of the thinking experience in a certain discipline. Dr. Li agreed that the essence of the tutorial system was equality and mutual respect. To the question whether the respect would be marred when a lecturer admitted that he did not know the answer to a question, Dr. Li's answer was emphatically "No": academic respect is always paid to those who inspire respect.

In tutorials, both the instructor and the students are seeking for truth together. As teachers we should inspire the students' respect through research and publications. We should not demand respect.

Dr. Li also agreed with Prof. Robinson that topics for tutorials should be sizable and argumentary. We should encourage students to express their own ideas, not just following the instructor's ideas. Students should try to search for the source materials they required. They should also be encouraged to write more papers, and participate in discussion. How to encourage students to ask more questions might be a local problem. Through small group teaching, students would be accustomed to discussion.

Dr. Li stressed the idea that tutorials are not meant to be follow-up meetings of lectures, nor are they additional lectures. They are not meant to clarify or to solve problems in regular exercises. They are to study the problems of a field and develop ways of thinking about them.

From the Deans' reports, Dr. Li was gratified to find that they all support inter-collegiate teaching with enthusiasm. Inter-collegiate teaching is not meant for Freshmen or Sophomores, but for Juniors and Seniors. Several lecturers might co-operate to give an inter-collegiate course, and this would also promote small group teaching. Inter-collegiate teaching is the only way to pool the human resources of the Colleges together for the benefit of all the students. Inter-collegiate teaching will reduce teaching hours for each staff member so that some lecturers may be released for research and tutorials. Dr. Li pointed out that some difficulty arise from the difference in college calendars, which should be made the same. He also suggested that it might feasible to schedule most courses of study on three days of the week, for instance, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, so that the other week days might be used for staff research, students' research and tutorials.

Finally, Dr. Li thought that further consideration should be given to questions regarding the Intermediate Examination which will be held for the first time this year.

Dr. Li expressed his thanks to Chung Chi, for arrangements, and to all the academic staff who attended the conference. He invited the staff members to visit the Inter-University Hall before going home.

THE SIXTH GENERAL CONFERENCE OF "ASAIHL"

Dr. C.M. Li, the Vice-Chancellor, left for Bangkok on December 11 to attend the sixth General Conference of the Association of Southeast Asian Institutions of Higher Learning (ASAIHL). Mr. H.T. Wu, the Register, flew to Bangkok for the same purpose on the same day by a later flight.

Dr. Li attended the Conference in two capacities, as a Member of the Administrative Board of ASAIHL, and as a representative of the Association of Commonwealth Universities in which he was recently elected a Member of the Executive Council.

The Conference, which was held at the Thammasat University in Bangkok from December 12 to December 15, 1966, was attended by 87 participants from 22 member-institutions and by a number of observers from 9 other organizations. It reviewed the current programmes and progress of the Southeast Asian institutions and discussed the planning for future development of these institutions. The Conference also assessed the role of universities in national and regional development.

Among various other programmes of activities, the Conference decided that a Seminar on Fine Arts be held in Hong Kong in November 1967, with a folklore and fine arts exhibition to be held at the same time if possible.

Dr. Li was elected Vice-President of ASHIAL for the year 1967-69.

The Seminar on Goals for Southeast Asian Universities was conducted after the Conference from December 16 to 18, 1966. Problems of student activities, teaching and research, financing university growth, recruitment of staff, extra-mural studies, and the university in community were discussed. Mr. Wu presented a paper on pre-university requirements.

Dr. Li and Mr. Wu returned on December 16 and 19, 1966, respectively.

UNIVERSITY PUBLIC LECTURES

△ At the invitation of the Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Choh-Ming Li, Professor Ho P'ing-Ti, Chair Professor of History at the University of Chicago, arrived on December 28. He came to advise the Vice-Chancellor on the curriculum in the University’s graduate studies.

Before joining the University of Chicago, Professor Ho taught World History at various universities in the United States. Later, his publications on topics of Chinese History won him a world-wide reputation. His sociological approach to the study of Chinese History has broken new ground in Sinology.

On January 9, 1967, Professor Ho gave a public lecture on “The Characteristics of the Traditional Chinese Society”. The lecture was sponsored by the University.

Professor Ho expressed the view that the most distinguished characteristic of the traditional Chinese Society was the great mobility in social status. According to him, what put a man in his social status was not his family background, but his own intellectual and moral development.

During the Tang Dynasty, examination as a means to decide a man’s social importance was introduced, and the man who reached the top of the list of successful candidates came out on top of his fellowsmen. Professor Ho conceded that money sometimes decided the status of a person, but only to the extent that poverty was a handicap to undisturbed studies. However, said Professor Ho, examination in the Ming Dynasty which demanded a higher intellectual standard than ever before, equalized the chance for the rich and the poor, and thus permitted an easier escalation of the social under-dogs.

△ Professor Max Beloff, Gladstone Professor of Government and Public Administration and Fellow of All Souls College, Oxford, arrived in Hong Kong on December 23 with his wife on a lecture tour under the auspices of the British Council.

The Professor gave three lectures during his stay here. Two of them were delivered at the University of Hong Kong.

On December 30, he gave a public lecture on “Current Problems in British Parliamentary Government” in the City Hall Theatre. The lecture, presided over by Dr. S.S. Hsueh, Reader in Zoology assigned to United College, was sponsored by the Chinese University.

△ Another public lecture, co-sponsored by the British Council and The Chinese University, was given by Professor Bruce Pattison, Professor of Education at the Institute of Education, London University, on January 26 at the City Hall. The Professor spoke on “English Today”.

In his lecture, Professor Pattison explained, in detail, the development, progress, and future trend of the English language. At the end of his lecture, he answered questions from the audience.

Professor Pattison arrived in Hong Kong on January 17, 1967 to advise The Chinese University on methods of English teaching. During his two weeks’ stay here, he spent the greater part of his time meeting the language and literature teachers of the University. In the company of Professor B. Hensman of the University, Professor Pattison visited the two local teachers training Colleges and some of the Chinese and Anglo-Chinese secondary schools, from which the University draws its students.

COLLEGE OVERSEAS LIAISON

For several years, there has been cross-cultural exchange between each of the three Foundation Colleges of the University and a few American universities and colleges. These ties proved to be of incalculable value in keeping The Chinese University “not just a Chinese institution with British affiliation, but a Chinese institution of international character”, as the Vice-Chancellor said in his inaugural message.

For the past few years, Chung Chi College has been welcoming tutors from Dartmouth, Wellesley and Princeton, who have been carefully selected by the Dartmouth Project-Asia, the Wellesley-Yenching Committee and the Princeton-in-Asia Committee. The arrangement is not an official one between the College and these American Universities, but is a concern of interested groups in or related to the three institutions. The tutors work in Chung Chi for two years, in rotations, half being replaced each year.

At the moment, the College has seven of these tutors. They are Melvin Ang, Jeffrey Amory and Gary Jefferson from Dartmouth; Nancy Dana and Marjory Williams from Wellesley; and Owen Nee and Lewis Rutherford from Princeton.

These young American scholars are helping in the Departments of English, History, and Religious Knowledge and Philosophy. They come for different reasons, notice different things, and teach different subjects. Yet all of them are interested in Chinese culture and wish to learn Kuo-Yü. Most of the tutors go on into graduate work with a life-time interest in Asia.

At New Asia College, under an arrangement with the Yale-in-China Association, the Yale-in-China “Bachelor” Programme provides the College with 4 tutors, all recent graduates, on two-year appointments. The “Yale Bachelors” who are now at New Asia, are Dale Freeman, Christian Murck, John Ewell and John King. Though all four teach English, Mr. Freeman and Mr. King also teach European History. In addition Mr. Timothy Light, a “Yale Bachelor” in 1960-62 at New Asia, has returned as an Assistant Lecturer in English after getting his M.A. degree at Columbia.

The Yale-in-China Association also provides two full scholarships to graduates of New Asia for two years’ graduate study in the United States. Dr. Phillip S.Y. Sung and Dr. Nathan Mao, who are now lecturers in the English Department of the College, both once held the Yale-in-China Scholarships while studying in the United States.

Other graduates of Yale University who have joined the faculty of New Asia College include Mr. B.P. Schoyer, Representative of Yale-in-China Association and Vice-President for Public Relations; Mr. Donald C. McCabe, Comptroller; and Mr. Wong Chi, Registrar and Dean of Studies of the College.

A co-operative programme between the United College and Williams College of Williamstown, Mass., U.S.A., began in the summer of 1966. Since 1961, there has been a Williams-in-Hong Kong Programme, but it was formerly located at New Asia.

Under the programme, Intensive Courses in English for primary and secondary school teachers and inservice social welfare personnel in Hong Kong are conducted annually during the summer months by six to seven recent graduates and seniors from Williams, with assistance from the English Department of United College. At the conclusion of their summer work in Hong Kong, these young scholars will return to Williams, with the exception of one who will stay through the year as the Representative of the Programme to plan courses for the following summer. Meanwhile, he will also teach at United.

At present, two Williams graduates are on the Staff of the College. They are James B. Anderson, Representative of the Programme for the year 1966/67, and Ronald Hubert, Representative for the year 1965/66 both with the English Department.

The Haystack Fund of Williams College offers two scholarships of US$2,500 each a year for selected students or recent graduates of United College to pursue further studies at Williams.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The School of Education was first established in September, 1965, under the direct management of the University, to offer a one-year postgraduate course including practical teaching, leading to the Diploma in Education.

The first major programme of the School is to provide training for graduates of approved universities to teach in local secondary schools. Emphasis is placed on training of teachers with strong subject matter specializations combined with a foundation in theoretical and professional studies. In the curriculum, twelve weeks of the academic year are occupied by practical teaching while the theoretical studies are concentrated in four months from December to March each year.

Mr. H.T. Wu, the University Registrar, is concurrently Director of the School. Although he plays his role in planning the curriculum and other aspects of the School as Director, his duties are mainly confined to administration, finance, and liaison with the University and the public. Professor Louis Arnaud Reid, formerly a Professor at the University of London Institute of Education, joined the School in December, 1966 on a visiting basis. Professor Reid is one of the leading authorities in the field of Philosophy of Education. He is now supported by a team of one Visiting Lecturer (Dr. Helen H. Pocher, who is at present on leave from San Francisco State College, where she is an Associate Professor of English Speech), three full-time lecturers (Dr. Yen Yuen Chang, Mr. Kan Kwok-chuen and Dr. George S.C. Cheng) and an Associate Lecturer (Mr. Chan Kai-sun).

Part-time staff with the School includes a University Senior Lecturer, four members of the Inspectorate of the Government Education Department, the principal of a Government Middle School and a member of the Medical Department.

In addition, eleven principals of local secondary schools serve as the School’s honorary supervisors. to give guidance to the students doing practical teaching in their schools. The system has been found not only valuable to the teachers-in-training, but also a good link between the University and the local secondary school system.

For language training, the School is equipped with a 16-booth language laboratory and an adequate collection of audio-visual aids to further the students' abilities in all English communication areas.

Last summer, nineteen students of the first class of the School obtained the Diploma in Education. They were examined by not only Internal Examiners from the University but also two External Examiners, one from Columbia University and the other from the University of Hong Kong. All Diplomates are now in the teaching profession in Hong Kong. (See the October, 1966 issue of this Bulletin)

The School of Education recently announced that in the academic year 1967/68, it will continue to offer the one-year course which will be open to graduates from recognized universities. The maximum intake of students is 40. Candidates will be required to sit for a qualifying examination. Applications should reach the School not later than February 20, 1967.

英國牛津大學貝樂夫教授（Prof. Max Beloff）於十二月三十日在香港大會堂作公開學術演講，講題為：「英國議會政制當前之問題」。此演講由中文大學主辦，講稿如下：

貝樂夫教授為英國牛津大學生靈學院政府及公共管理學講座教授。此次應英國文化委員會之邀，偕其夫人於十二月廿三日抵港，作旅行演講。貝敎授留港期間，除於本月廿六日在本港大學作一次公開學術演講，並應香港大學之邀及講婦之陪同，於十二月廿六日作公開演講外，另於本月廿六日及十二月卅一日作兩次公開演講，講題分別為「今日的英語」及「今日的英語」。

除上述有關項演講外，另有美國倫敦大學敎育學院柏德遜教授（Prof. Bruce Pattison）於本月廿六日在本港大學作公開演講，講題為「今日的英語」。該次演講係由英國文化委員會與本大學共同主持。柏教授於本年初抵港，由本大學請其擔任大學英文敎授，在港期間，除與大學三校院之語文敎師會談外，並在本大學英語講座教授韓詩梅博士陪同下，訪問羅富國及葛量洪師範學院及本港若干中英文中學。

各學院與海外教育機構聯系

崇基學院於一九六六年起，備承「達茅斯亞洲計劃」、「威斯利燕京委員會」及「普林斯頓亞洲委員會」分別自各該學校遴選助敎多人前來工作，為期兩年，每年有半數人員輪流由新人接替。崇基學院與各該美國大學之間，並無明文規定交流辦法，其關係僅為該學院與與此大學之私誼而已。此等助敎，現在崇基學院者凡七人，計有達茅斯之吳錫麟，安慕禮，及謝佛生三君，威斯利之譚娜及魏玲禧兩小姐及普林斯頓之倪有文與盧澤福兩君，分別在英國語文，歷史及宗敎知識與哲學等各學系協助敎學。當各該助敎前來該院工作時，其目的各不同，而考察之事物，講授科目亦有所分別，然於中國文化，均感興趣，並欲學習國語，各助敎多有志於繼續從事亞洲語言之研究。

新亞書院與雅禮協會向有密切聯繫，在雅禮協會「學士」計劃項下，最近派遣大學畢業生四人，前來該院任助敎，為期兩年。其姓名如下：范禮文，慕容克，伊威爾及金格諸君。四人雖敎英國語文，但范禮文與金格兩先生則兼敎歷史。而一九六五年，南非大學英文敎授曾在該院英文講座教授韓詩梅博士陪同下，訪問羅富國及葛量洪師範學院及本港若干中英文中學。

聯合書院經與美國麻省威廉士大學共同成立一項敎育合作計劃，此項計劃於一九六六年夏，已告實行。威廉士大學自一九六一年卽在本港推行其合作計劃，其初設於新亞書院。根據此一計劃，威廉士大學於每年暑期，派遣該校畢業生或四年級生六七人，前來本港，經聯誼會介紹後，由該院英語學系教授聘為助敎。威廉士大學之 assaulting student 代表安德遜先生及一九六五至六六年合作計劃代表胡約博士，其中一人留港代表該計劃籌備明年暑期之課程外，餘皆返其原校，留港之代表並將在聯合書院擔任教職。威廉士大學畢業生現在聯合書院英語文學系任教者，計有一九六六至六七年合作計劃代表安德遜先生及一九六五至六六年合作計劃代表胡約博士。
教學，乃師生共同工作以尋求真理之方法。凡為人師者，應以研究心得及其著述，取得學生之尊敬，尊敬非可以強求。關於樂品淳敎授所云，導師教學之題材，務求可資發揮議論者為適合，李校長亦深信其說。並云對於學生應鼓勵其發表自己之意見，不純以教師之意見為從違；對於學生所需之資料，應由學生自行搜集，並應鼓勵其多發問，當屬各科別問題。採用小組教學方法後，學生當漸能習於討論。

李校長力言，導師教學之用意，旣非為班上講授之補充，亦非在增加講授之次數，更非藉以解決日常習作中所發生之問題，其目的乃在硏究當面對問題時如何作中獲得知識。各科主任之報告書中對學院交換教學法，均表熱忱支持，李校長深感欣慰。並謂學院交換教學法，實為大學三四年級生設者，學院交換教學課程，由各學院講師協力促成。是項協力講學之舉亦有助於小組教學。李校長此行係以雙重身份出席該大會，蓋其本人為該聯合會之理事，又為英聯邦大學協會之新任理事會執委員。

該大會於一九六六年十一月十三日至十五日，假曼谷潭麥色大學（Thammasat University）舉行，出席會議者為二十二所成員學術機構之代表凡八十七人，另有九機構派有觀察員多人列席。會中曾就東南亞各高等學術機構之當前計劃，進展情形，以及將來應如何發展之問題予以檢討，大會並商討及各大學對於各國與各地區發展所承担之任務。

大會於討論各項議案之中，經決定一九六七年十一月中旬，將在本港舉行藝術硏討會，並擬同時舉辦民間風物及藝術品展覽會。李校長經被公舉為一九六七至六八年度東南亞高等學術機構聯合會副主席。大會結束後，即舉行研討會，討論東南亞各學術機構之活動，教學法，研究工作，以及如何資助大學之發展，徵募人才，大學校外課程與大學在社會之地位等問題，均涉及。胡校務主任熙德於會中，曾提出其討論大學入學資格問題之論文。

中國留美學人芝加哥大學歷史講座敎授何炳棣博士，應本大學李卓敏校長之聘，於去年十一月二十八日飛抵本港，對本校硏究院歷史學部之硏究與敎學，有所建議。何敎授歷在美國各大學任敎，係西洋史專家，近年專治中國歷史，尤以用社會學之方法硏究中國歷史，為硏究史學開創嶄新途徑，甚為學術界所推重。何氏此來，除在本校硏究院先後作數次演講外，復於一月九日作公開學術演講。此次演講由大學主持，講題為「傳統中國社會之特性」。
教學法研討會議

本學於本年一月二十七日在崇基學院舉行全日研討會議，其目的乃欲就導師制及研究班之教學法，檢討各教師實行以來之情形，並就大學教務會通過實施教學法之各項提案，商討其所進行之情況。出席會議人士，包括本大學各教師及行政人员，共達二百四十八人之多。

首由李校長卓敏博士宣佈會議開始，並將本大學於一九六五年所以制定教學法之目標，簡略揭橥其概要。旋介紹香港大學副校長樂品淳先生（Mr. Kenneth Robinson）講述有關導師制之各項基本要點。演講後小作休息，繼續開會。大會依學科劃分為三組，各就本科有關問題，加以討論，範圍包括院際教學，小組教學，減少教學時間，劃一課程及減輕考試之重要性等各項。

下午開會，仍由李校長主持，先由三組學科主任分別報告討論之結果，旋由李校長介紹香港蜆殼公司余季皋博士，請其講述其在一九四六年至四九年間在英國劍橋大學龐布祿學院肄業時所獲得「導師制」之經驗。余季皋博士演講完畢，隨卽解答與會者所提出若干問題。

最後由李校長先向演講人及三位學科主任致謝並作總結。本屆大會爲大學第一次全體教師會議，吾人所寄望於今日之會議者，乃欲求得一項獨特之教學方法，擷取各家制度之精華，鎔冶於一爐，非僅抄襲西方國家之成法而已。
