ASAIHL COMMITTEE MEETING

A Special Committee of ASAIHL (Association of Southeast Asian Institutions of Higher Learning) met in Vice-Chancellor Choh-Ming Li's office on 2nd and 3rd February to finalize plans for the establishment of a working programme among all fifty universities in Southeast Asia for a Student Exchange Programme to begin in September, 1968. This Committee is the result of the discussions of the Administrative Board of ASAIHL, which met in Baguio, Philippines, in November, 1967.

The Committee consists of the following members:

Vice-Chancellor Li, Chairman.
Dr. Huang Ying-Jung, Acting Vice-Chancellor of Nanyang University.

Dr. Rong Syamananda, Deputy Rector of Chulalongkorn University in Thailand.
Professor Enrique T. Virata, University of the Philippines.
Dr. Prachoom Chomchai, Executive Secretary of ASAIHL.

NEW DEANS OF FACULTIES

New Deans of Faculties have been elected for a term of two years ending November, 1969.

Faculty of Arts:
Professor Tang Chun-i,
Director of the Institute of Advanced Chinese Studies and Research and Head of the Department of Philosophy at New Asia College.

Faculty of Science:
Professor Shou-cheng Joseph Fu,
Professor of Chemistry at United College.

Faculty of Commerce and Social Science:
Professor David Hsieng-fu Li,
Visiting Professor at the Lingnan Institute of Business Administration.

A COMMON CALENDAR FOR THE COLLEGES

At its meeting on 16th January the University Calendar (Almanac) Committee decided to have a common Calendar for all three Colleges for the academic year 1968/69.
The Calendar will provide 24 to 28 net teaching weeks excluding the examination period in both terms. This will go a long way to help those who have to plan inter-collegiate and collegiate classes. It is also the result of consulting both the teaching and administrative staff representatives.

VISITOR TO THE UNIVERSITY

Mr. J. Mangold, Bursar of the University of Sussex, visited the University from 22nd February to 4th March, under the sponsorship of the Inter-University Council for Higher Education Overseas.

During his stay Mr. Mangold had discussions with Mr. Paul Lam, University Buildings Officer, in connection with the building programme at Shatin. Views were exchanged between him and the Vice-Chancellor on the functions of a Buildings Officer. He also attended a committee meeting of the University Grants Committee on 23rd February.

Mr. Mangold also visited the three Colleges and exchanged views on their building programmes.

Before his departure, Mr. Mangold called on the University of Hong Kong.

UNIVERSITY LECTURES AND TALKS

At the invitation of the University, Professor Samuel Devons, F.R.S., gave a lecture on "Biology and the Physical Sciences" at the Rotunda of New Asia College on 19th February to the faculty of the University and members of the Physical Society of Hong Kong.

Professor Devons was formerly Professor of Physics at Imperial College of Science and Technology, University of London, and Langsworthy Professor of Physics and Director of Physical Laboratories, University of Manchester, England, and Chairman of the Department of Physics, Columbia University from 1963 to 1967.

Mr. Geoffrey Archer, Executive Director of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce, spoke to final-year students of the University on "Opportunities in Business" on 21st February at the City Hall. The talk was followed by mock interviews with students of the Lingnan Institute of Business Administration of the University by Professor Maurice Moonitz, Director of the Institute. Mr. Archer followed up with an evaluation of the interviews, to draw the students’ attention to certain practical aspects of an interview for employment.

This meeting is one of a series arranged by the Appointments Workshop Committee of the University, set up for the express purpose of giving guidance to final year students on their performance at interviews.

A public lecture, co-sponsored by the British Council and the Extramural Department of the University, was given by Mr. Ian McLachlan, Head of the Department of European Language and Literature, University of Hong Kong, on 23rd February at the City Hall. Mr. McLachlan spoke on "C. Day Lewis: Poet or Poet Laureate?"

STAFF PROFILES

Professor David H. Li, Visiting Professor, Lingnan Institute of Business Administration.

Professor David H. Li was born in Ningpo, Chekiang, and received his secondary education from the Lester School of the Henry Lester Institute of Technology in Shanghai. Upon receiving his A.B. degree in Economics from the St. John's University in 1949, he visited Hong Kong on his way to the States, where he received an M.B.A. in Industrial Management from the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce of the University of Pennsylvania in 1950, and Ph.D. in Accountancy from the University of Illinois in 1953. After serving as Controller in the Chicago Executive Office of Mutual of Omaha, he taught at the University of Southern California and earned his CPA certificate by working summers with the Los Angeles office of Haskins & Sells. Later, he served as a Professor of Accounting at the California State College at Fullerton. While there, he was elected the Chairman of the Faculty Council for one term and also served as the Director of Computer Facilities. Since 1965, he has been a Professor of Accounting in the Graduate School of Business Administration of the University of Washington in Seattle.

Since coming to Hong Kong in September to serve at the University, he has been made Chairman of the Hong Kong Management Association’s EDP Management Committee and has conducted a top-management seminar on computers and management information systems for that Association.

Dr. Francis S. Hutchins, Representative of The Yale-in-China Association

Dr. Francis Hutchins received the A.B. degree from Oberlin College in 1925, and the M.A. from Yale University in 1933. He has received honorary degrees from Oberlin, Lake Forest, University of Kentucky and Berea College.

Dr. Hutchins began work in China in 1922 as an Oberlin-Shansi representative. He continued service in Changsha, Hunan in 1925 as an appointee of Yale-in-China. From 1928 to 1938 Mr. Hutchins was the representative in China of the Yale-in-China Association.

On his return from China in 1939 Dr. Hutchins became President of Berea College, Berea, Kentucky. He retired from this position on 31st August, 1967.

Dr. Hutchins is a member of two national commissions, the U.S. Citizens Commission on N.A.T.O. and the President’s National Advisory Commission on Rural Poverty.

Mrs. Hutchins is a graduate of Wellesley (1932) and Yale M.D. (1936). She was born in Changsha and took her internship at the Hunan-Yale Hospital. She has been active in pediatrics and planned parenthood.

Dr. and Mrs. Hutchins are accompanied by their son, Robert, who is enrolled in the study of Mandarin in the Yale-in-China Chinese Language Center at New Asia College.

編訂校曆

中文大學校刊編輯委員會於一月十六日舉行會議，通過三成員學院於編訂一九六八至六九年年度校曆時，應有劃一之校曆。各學院所編訂之校曆，其實際上課時間，應有二十二週至二十八週，但上下學期之考試時間，則不在其內。此校曆表中所列時間，對於學院交換教學與學院上課時間之分配，甚易處理。是項提案，係經諮詢各教學員代表後，決定實施。
