University Athletic Programme

The Management Committee of the Royal Hong Kong Jockey Club has approved a grant of HK$1,500,000 to the University to meet the construction costs of the Sports Centre for the new campus at Shatin. The grant will be made to the University as soon as building work on the project begins.

The Sports Centre will be built on the solid ground west of the University Sports Field, a large flat area close to the railway. The Field will have sufficient space for three soccer pitches, a 400-metre track, and a number of tennis and basket ball courts.
Mr. Edward Heath Visits the University

The leader of the Conservative Party in Britain, the Right Honourable Edward Heath, M.B.E., M.P., visited the University on 10th January.

Mr. Heath arrived at the Chung Chi College Stadium by helicopter at 9.00 a.m. and was escorted to the Benjamin Franklin Centre. He was greeted on arrival by Dr. Choh-Ming Li, Vice-Chancellor, Dr. C.T. Yung, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Y.T. Shen, President of New Asia College, and Mr. T.C. Cheng, President of United College.

Mr. Heath, on a 3-day visit to Hong Kong, had a brief tour of the new campus site of the University and was deeply interested in its development. He was accompanied by Mr. J.A. Kershaw, M.C., M.P., Parliamentary Private Secretary, the Honourable D.R. Hurd, Private Secretary, and the Hon. J.J. Robson, Director of Public Works.

Analysis of 1969/70 Inter-Collegiate Teaching

Inter-collegiate courses, in which students from all three Foundation Colleges are eligible to enroll, were introduced by the University in 1964. These courses are scheduled at times and places most convenient to the majority of the staff and students participating. If circumstances preclude scheduling of basic courses to accommodate students from one College at a time and place convenient to the other two institutions, the course is repeated at a different time and place to accommodate those students who would otherwise be excluded. In the case of elective courses, however, it is permissible for students from only two Colleges to participate.

The respective Boards of Studies are responsible for planning inter-collegiate courses in their particular subject field. The Central Office serves as a coordinating agency in setting the time, arranging for the necessary accommodations and informing all concerned of when and where the course will be offered. Notice of any inter-collegiate courses which a Board of Studies proposes to offer during the next academic year must be given to the Central Office by the end of May to enable necessary arrangements to be made and advance information to be disseminated.

Since their inception, the variety of subjects and the number of students participating in inter-collegiate courses have increased significantly each year. The following table is a complete listing of the inter-collegiate courses for which the Central Office has been requested to make arrangements during the current academic year.

The Pre-Employment Workshop

The second annual Pre-Employment Workshop for third- and fourth-year students of the University, organized by the University Appointments Service, was held from 6th to 8th January, 1970 at the Hong Kong Hyatt Hotel, Kowloon. The purpose of the Workshop is to help senior students of the three constituent Colleges to understand problems of career making and employment after their graduation. The dimensional aspects of the graduate employment problem were integrated in a comprehensive syllabus and in the combined panel organization.

The Workshop was opened by Dr. C.T. Yang, Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University and Chairman of the Appointments Board. In his opening remarks, Dr. Yang pointed out that the problem of graduate employment had its unique aspects in Hong Kong and that the students should be helped to equip themselves, besides fulfilling academic requirements, with a knowledge of environmental relationships and a personal adjustment to changing conditions. The Pre-Employment Workshop

The second annual Pre-Employment Workshop for third- and fourth-year students of the University, organized by the University Appointments Service, was held from 6th to 8th January, 1970 at the Hong Kong Hyatt Hotel, Kowloon. The purpose of the Workshop is to help senior students of the three constituent Colleges to understand problems of career making and employment after their graduation. The dimensional aspects of the graduate employment problem were integrated in a comprehensive syllabus and in the combined panel organization.

The Workshop was opened by Dr. C.T. Yung, Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University and Chairman of the Appointments Board. In his opening remarks, Dr. Yung pointed out that the problem of graduate employment had its unique aspects in Hong Kong and that the students should be helped to equip themselves, besides fulfilling academic requirements, with a knowledge of environmental relationships and a personal adjustment to changing conditions. Dr. Choh-Ming Li, Vice-Chancellor of the University, Dr. Y.T. Shen, President of New Asia College, and Mr. T.C. Cheng, President of United College, also attended the opening ceremony.
The role of the Appointments Service is not an easy one for it serves as a match-maker and is situated right between the sources of demand and supply. If the university is turning out graduates of the appropriate quality and yet the employers insist on defined qualifications, the Appointments Service will find it impossible to satisfy either of them. The gap between the two expectations is too big. Somewhere the students must be brought to the reckoning that a process of moulding and adjustment to bridge the gap is an indispensible process. Somehow the model students must be helped to equip themselves, besides fulfilling academic requirements, with a knowledge of environmental relationships and a personal adjustment to changing conditions. It is in the whole development that the Appointments Service should lend its assistance. The least it can do under the circumstances is to provide an impetus in which the students are warned and reminded of the necessary considerations to be given to the employment problem. We propose to do so in their third year of study so that sufficient time is available for them to properly channel their thinking, to be armed with additional tools, in short, to improve themselves before graduation and induction into employment. After all, the Appointments Service is to help the students to extricate themselves from their jobs for themselves, not to have things done for them.

The University Appointments Service cannot accept the responsibility of successful placement. But it can provide the opportunity. We would like to invite the collaboration of community leaders, captains of trade and industry and prime movers of social and economic activities to share our task. They represent the demand side and their requirements must be understood and reconciled. In this connection, let me say how grateful we are that over 80 of these leaders are among us at this Workshop to inspire us with their experience and guidance. Let me thank them most sincerely for the part they are going to play. I am also appreciative of the many university colleagues who are serving as panelists and as students or staff members. They will add another phase of constructive observation. My best wishes go to the students who have voluntarily come forward not only to be impressed but to express themselves. I hope that we will ask questions, intelligent questions, and participate freely and in full measure in a forum of study and discussion. This Workshop is being organized for their sake and for their benefit. We shall be more than happy if at the close of this exercise they have acquired a new sense of direction and a realization of what is expected of them.

Before I close, I wish to acknowledge with very deep appreciation on behalf of The Chinese University of Hong Kong the financial contribution from The Asia Foundation which has enabled us to stage this programme in a fuller and richer manner. We are sincerely grateful to The Foundation's good offices which accompanied the gift. Now I take great pleasure to declare open the Pre-Employment Workshop, 1970.
Dr. C. T. Yung's Opening Address

It is indeed a great pleasure for me to welcome you all to our second Pre-Employment Workshop of The Chinese University of Hong Kong. Last year, it was held on our Chung Chi campus and I remember how many of you had to brave the cold and the distance to spend a whole day with us. This year we have tried to remedy the distance factor and I hope we are equally successful with the weather. I am exceedingly delighted with the increased enrollment of over 300 students at this Workshop which reflects favourably upon increased awareness and appreciation of the value of a pre-employment programme.

By the experience gained from the first Workshop held last year we have been able to improve in a number of ways the mechanics of organization and proceedings. We have tried to integrate the dimensional aspects of the programme in a comprehensive syllabus and by constituting combined panels consisting of field experts and leaders, university academics and alumni. We have also tried to provide a more effective time table to permit a greater share of communication. On the one hand we wish to maximize on fellowship, on the other hand we would like to minimize the dead time of individual participants, especially that of the panelists, as they are all busy men. You may note that all students will be involved in an orientation session where a treatment will be given to basic aspects of individual preparation. In addition, each student is expected to join one of the professional workshops of his choice where more specific problems of career planning are discussed in depth. Further, to widen an understanding of inter-area relationships, students will have an opportunity to hear the summary reports of all the other workshops in a joint plenary session. A total of 15 workshops will be conducted as from tomorrow and continue for two days. I sincerely hope that a spirit of discussion and discovery may prevail.

The problem of graduate employment in any developing society has to be examined from its many aspects. It is a problem in a transitional social society where institutional relationships are more or less established and the ethnic growth of manpower can be gauged. However, once the demand and supply equation is disturbed as it is in a transitional or developing society, problems multiply drastically. In the United States as early as 40 years ago, the established universities in cooperation with the larger business and public service institutions inaugurated employer visits to the campus to enable a mutual screening between the would-be employers and employees. This became necessary as a competitive element had set in on both sides of demand and supply. To this day, the work has assumed an organized basis under the coordination of a National Placement Council. Practically all universities and colleges operate a service for student counselling and placement and the work has become an annual and recurrent activity.

In an Eastern society and in our Hong Kong situation, the problem of graduate employment has its unique aspects. The mere transplantation of a Western model may not yield the desired results. Our background and social structure are different. The tremendous political changes in Mainland China and the countries of Southeast Asia are reflected in local life and pursuit. Our migrant population has undertaken the ethnic. More than half of our residents are minors. Family formation and home life are no longer what they used to be. University admission is available to the rich and poor alike. We have with us a new generation of parents and a new generation of children: When most of our parents were preoccupied with making a livelihood or striving for greater gain, the parent-child relationship suffers and it is often reduced to a minimum. All that parents could do would be to entrust their children to the care of the universities. They may pay for their tuition and upkeep but they know little or nothing of what the modern university has to offer yet they are all believing and trusting. Thus the university, like it or not, is expected to assume the dual role of parent and teacher.

Is the university responding to this expectation? Four years of study is a long time. For students with financial pressures, they are in a hurry to seek jobs and become money earners. Many are already working while carrying on the academic load. In this age of so-called academic revolution which may have its repercussions even in Hong Kong, the university finds itself at the crossroad of great decision making. Should it continue to operate on a pattern of prescribed curriculum of courses and required enrollment and a system of examinations or should it adopt the new and yet undefined policy of freedom and permissiveness? This dissertation may appear unrelated to the work of the Appointments Service but it does when we are dealing with the end product, that is, the graduates. We want employable students; we are faced with a quantitative problem of having to match the increasing number of graduates with available posts, which varies according to occupational trends. We are interested to have student candidates who are prepared, happy and willing to seek employment upon their graduation. Their motivation, their possession of communication ability and conceptual skill do concern us.

The role of the Appointments Service is not an easy one for it serves as a match-maker and is situated right between the sources of demand and supply. If the universities are turning out graduates of undefined quality and yet the employers insist on defined qualifications, the Appointments Service will find it impossible to satisfy either of them. The gap between the two expectations is too big. Somewhere the students must be brought to the reckoning that a process of moulding and adjustment to bridge the gap is an indispensable process. Somehow the least that the universities and the Appointments Service should do in this respect is to warn and advise the students and the employers. The Appointments Service should lend its assistance. The universities must be helped to equip themselves, besides fulfilling academic requirements, with a knowledge of environmental relationships and a personal adjustment to changing conditions. It is in the area of industrial and commercial development that the Appointments Service should lend its assistance. The least that the Universities Appointments Service cannot accept the responsibility of successful placement. Be it during or after the student's period of study, they must be helped to equip themselves with additional tools, in short, to improve themselves before graduation and induction into employment. After all, the Appointments Service is there to help the students to explore and do things for themselves, not to have things done for them.

The Closing Ceremony

The Pre-Employment Workshop was successfully concluded in the afternoon of 8th January.
As universities are places where minds are set to work on the distilled essence of human experience and wisdom and are not a market place for quarrels of the moment, learning by and large is necessarily abstract or detached from the encumbrances of particular conditions of a particular place and time. Hence the apparent remoteness of philosophy, history, literature and other disciplines.

What then should be done to bridge this remoteness and the future role of the students? The answer is primarily for the students to see the relevance in its true sense by relating the two. Whether abstract principles of good writing that have been learnt should be applied in the judgment of documents that appear before us daily, whether it be newspaper, magazine, or letter. The principles of economics learnt from a university course ought to be discovered working in this fast developing city of ours. To do this, a student’s general reading should be wide, but to my disappointment, I find it to be quite narrow at times at interviews of scholarship candidates intending to pursue postgraduate studies overseas. One candidate interested in political science that I interviewed knew little about the Legislative Council and the Urban Council. I also gained the impression that little is known about the controversy over the demand for an ombudsman. This casts no reflection on the candidate’s university, for what most intelligent students do is to apply what they have learnt to these current issues by reading and thinking about them critically in the light of what they learn from their teachers. This is the right way of attaining relevance, and is a highly effective way of preparing oneself for a role in society.

Perhaps this has been achieved already either in the University or in the Workshop. If so, let me congratulate you and the future employers, for emerging from the portals of The Chinese University are young men and women who not only can think in the abstract but have coupled this ability with a lively interest in the day-to-day affairs of the world.

I should like to take this opportunity to express the University’s gratitude to all those who have contributed to the success of the Workshop, particularly members of the community who have joined us in discussions with the students. You have rendered excellent service to our future successors in this society, and have fulfilled an important civic responsibility.

Town has come to town to prepare for town. May both continue to play their complimentary roles for the further development of this beloved city of ours.

Gordon) 及唐議員炳源博士訪問馬尼拉之亞洲管理學院; 一月二十一日, 再與唐議員前往日本訪問國際硏究及管理訓練學院。嶺南商科硏究所於一九六六年成立, 得力於嶺南大學各董事之慷慨捐輸, 目的在促進香港之發展。由於嶺南商科硏究所, 目前在日本京都國際工商學院之合作, 及在深圳工業大學之交流, 均已具見成效, 使嶺南商科硏究所之工作, 有更大之發展。而過去之發展, 已使我國之工商界, 應當有機會, 以嶺南商科硏究所之發展, 作為一常備項目。

幾年當中，埋首苦讀，因此對將來的工作，已有相當的準備。有些同學也许認為所學的太過抽象，與將來的實際生活脫節，因此要尋求些與它有關係的學問。近年來外國學生，喜歡提倡與生活有關的學問，但意思是指越南戰爭、公民權爭取問題、城市問題、參政問題等。所以在學校裏，希望教授們撇下正規的課程，來討論上述那種問題。本人認為提倡學問與生活的緊密連繫，不應有這樣的狹窄見解，因為它似乎不是進行連繫的工作，而是以時事來代替學問。前人經驗的精華，給現代片面的生活排擠了，因此重視細節多於原則，具體多於抽象，暫時的多於永久性的。

大學是思考人類經驗精華與智慧的地方，不應成爲充滿糾紛的市井。所以許多門學問是抽象的，並且脫離時間與空間的累贅，因此在表面上似乎是與生活脫節了。為避免脫節，學生應時刻自動應用理論於現實生活之上。現實生活既然日新月異、範圍廣闊，便應博覽羣書，留意環境，在思想之中，盡量運用所學的原理。學問能夠達到這種境界，才算是「通」。

也许在過去三天之中，甚或在這三天之前，同學們已能做到這一點。如果真是這樣，實在是令人佩服的。當然，學生在有餘力的同時，亦應積極地參與社會活動，以達成學校的教育目標。

大學敎務會經通過本學年大學各系務會委員名單。大學校長暨成員學院院長俱為各系務會之當然委員。其他委員之名單如下：
我們根據去年第一屆的經驗，努力作多方面的改進，將各種就業問題，編進綜合的討論綱要；並組織講習小組，由專家、社會賢達、大學教職員及校友負責指導。我們也作了較完善的安排，使大家有充裕的時間。一方面，我們希望擴大參加的人數；另一方面，我們也要顧及參加講習小組的同學及導師的負擔。每一位同學，除參加專業就業問題的講習外，還須參加一般性就業問題講習組，以研討就業的基本問題。此外，還有數次全校大會，各有不同主題，由各位同學輪流作報告。我希望各位同學盡量爭取機會發表意見。

在一個傳統型的社會裏，大學畢業生就業問題並不嚴重，因為已有一套固定的制度，而且人力成長率也可以加以衡量。但在一個發展中的社會，大學畢業生的就業問題卻必須從多方面去研究。供應與需求一旦失去平衡，就有很多問題產生。四十多年前，美國著名大學已開始實行邀請僱主到校訪問，以便未來的僱主與僱員先有接觸的機會。在美國，全國就業委員會的協助下，學生就業輔導在美現在已經很普遍，很多大學已經設立就業輔導處。

香港是一個東方型的社會，大學畢業生的就業問題有其獨特的地方，直接把西方的格式移到東方未必理想。我們的背景及社會結構與西方不同，家庭的組織及家庭生活也與過去的迥異。無論貧富，入大學的機會均等。新一代的父母為生活忙碌，與兒女之間便有隔膜，父母只好將兒女送入大學，要求大學照顧與監管，於是大學便負起父母與師長的任務。

在這方面，大學能孚衆望嗎？四年是頗長的時間，有些經濟困難的同學畢業後便要立刻找工作。在這個所謂學術革命的時代，香港大學正處在重大決策的十字路口：究竟應該採用傳統的教學方式，還是實施自由與放任的政策？這些問題在表面上看來與就業輔導處無關，實在有很大關係，因為我們需要的是能配合社會的人才。我們非常關心同學們在將來是否已作好充分的就業準備，唯有作好準備，方能找到合適的工作。

就業輔導處的職責相當重大，因為它處於供應與需求之間，它必須幫助同學們配備自己，使他們除了有充實的學識以外，還能認識四周的環境，並具備適應環境的能力。就業輔導處正朝著這個方向走，特別為三年級的學生安排就業研習會，使他們有充裕的時間考慮就業問題，並作各種準備。

就業輔導處的責任，並不是替每一位同學找到一份滿意的工作；它的工作是供給同學以就業的機會。在這方面，我們必須獲得社會賢達、工商界領袖的協助，因他們代表需求的一方。因此同學們必須了解他們的要求。今天，我們很幸運得到八十多位社會賢達參加研習會，並且能夠指導和啓發各位同學。在此，我向他們致謝。我也要感謝中文大學的同仁，在這次的研習會中，擔任導師及其他繁忙的工作。我希望參加這研習會的同學，提出有意義的問題並自由發表意見。研習會是為他們而設，盼望他們在研習會中得到新的啓示。

最後，我謹代表中文大學向亞洲協會致謝，該會的慷慨捐贈使本屆研習會的內容更為充實。現在，我宣布就業輔導研習會開幕。

研習會內容

參加就業輔導研習會之學生達三百三十名，導師共一百十七人，包括政府官員、社會賢達、工商界領袖、大學校友及行政人員三十六人。

本屆之研習會共分十五講習組進行，六組研討就業準備，九組研討專業問題。參加研習會之學生均須出席此兩類講習組。研討就業準備之六組研討事項如下：

一、職業申請
二、會晤僱主
三、就業前之準備
四、就業及訓練

研討專業問題之九組，討論下列各種專業：

一、政府部門工作
二、文科教職
三、理科教職
四、社會工作
五、商業
六、工業
七、專職業務
八、旅遊業及酒店管理
九、群眾導演

除上述之講習組外，尚有四次會議，於一月七日及八日舉行。會議內容包括：

電影及討論會：「我往那裡去？」
大學就業輔導處主任兼出版部主任潘光迥博士演講：「外界徵聘大學生之原則及方法」
及就業準備及專業問題講習組主席作綜合報告。

該數項會議，分別由本校教職員主持：崇基學院講師盧寶堯先生，新亞書院訓導長陶振揚先生，聯合書院教務長楊乃舜先生，及新亞書院講師顔益羣神父。

就業輔導研習會

大學副校長容啓東博士於一九六九年一月六日至八日,在九龍凱悅酒店為三、四年級學生舉行第二屆就業輔導研習會,其目的是協助行將畢業之同學作就業前之種種準備。

開幕禮

開幕禮由大學副校長兼學生就業輔導委員會主席容啓東博士主持,容副校長在演講中表示,香港之大學生就業問題有其獨特之處,故須協助學生在各方面充實自己,除學識外,應具有認識環境及適應環境之能力。
希斯議員在港僅逗留三日,此次訪問本校,獲睹正在建設中之新校址,對本校之發展計劃深感興趣。陪同希斯議員訪問大學者,為英國國會私人秘書居韶先生 (Mr. J. A. Kershaw)、希斯議員之私人秘書赫德先生 (The Hon. D. R. Hurd) 及香港政府工務司盧秉信先生 (The Hon. J. J. Robson)。

一九六九至七〇年度
院際教學之分析

院際教學課程於一九六四年開始實施,目的係使三成員學院之學生得選修同一講師所授之課程。院際教學自實施後,學生人數及課程種類日益增加。在編排院際教學課程時,已儘量給予教員及學生以方便。至於採用院際教學方式進行之基本課程,均設法作最妥適之安排;若學生在時間方面不能兼顧,則將該課程重授一次,以方便無法在同一時間內上課之學生。所有院際課程,任何學院之學生均可隨意選修。

院際教學課程開設之程序如下:首由各學系計劃及籌備所擬開辦之院際教學課程,然後由大學校務處統一編排時間、上課地點,再行通知有關教師課程名稱及上課時間、地點。各系務會則將下學年開設之院際教學課程計劃,於每年五月梢前通知校務處,以便校務處有充分時間統一編排。

下列之图表即為校務處依照上述程序代為編排之院際教學課程。兹將本校一九六九至七〇年度院際教學內容,列表如下：

University Athletic Programme

The Management Committee of the Royal Hong Kong Jockey Club has approved a grant of HK$1,500,000 to the University to meet the construction costs of the Sports Centre for the new campus at Shatin. The grant will be made to the University as soon as building work on the project begins.

The Sports Centre will be built on the solid ground west of the University Sports Field, a large flat area close to the railway. The Field will have sufficient space for three soccer pitches, a 400-metre track, and a number of tennis and basketball courts.

Prospects for Development of Physical Education

At present, only Chung Chi College has its own stadium and sports field; New Asia and United Colleges have very limited facilities. Despite the limitations, all three Colleges promote physical education and encourage students to participate in various athletic activities. Now that the University will have a Sports Centre through the generous contribution made by the Jockey Club, and its own Sports Field at the new campus site, the scope of expansion of physical education can be distinctly envisaged. The base of all present projects and programmes will be broadened and every effort will be made to coordinate activities to ensure that the students receive all the privileges they can enjoy from the facilities.
