JOURNAL OF THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

To provide an outlet for high-quality academic writings and to commemorate its tenth anniversary, the University has decided on the annual publication of a Journal of The Chinese University of Hong Kong. The Editorial Committee of the Journal consists of:

Vice-Chancellor (Chairman)
Three College Presidents
Deans of the Faculties of Arts, Science, Commerce & Social Science
Chairmen/Administrative Chairmen of the Boards of Studies
Directors of research institutes

Directors of research units

The main objective of the Journal is to contribute to learning by publishing scholarly articles which contain elements of originality, research reports and book reviews by University staff and, by invitation, external contributors.

The inaugural issue of the Journal is now in preparation and will be published in June 1973, and will include 13 articles, 1 topical lecture and 6 book reviews. All but three of the following articles are contributed by staff of this University:

Ho Ping-ti (James Westfall Thompson Professor of History, University of Chicago): A Critical Study of the Early Chou Chronology
Cheng Te-k'un (Reader of Chinese Archaeology, University of Cambridge): Numerals of Ancient China
C.Y. Yeh Chao (Professor of Asian Studies, University of British Columbia): Wang Kuo-wei: His Character & His Scholarship
Chen Cheng-siang: Population Increase and the Extent of Urbanization in China, 1953-72
Lamp Li: The Evolution and Nature of Multinational Corporation and Some Related Problems
(The above are in Chinese with English summaries)
Gerald Berkley: The Early Communist Practice of Peasant Recruitment. A Case in Point: The Training of Peasant Organizers at the Canton Peasant Training Institute, 1924-1926
Rance Lee: Population, Housing and the Availability of Medical and Health Services in an Industrializing Chinese Community
Mun Kin-chok: Segmentation of Hong Kong's International Markets by Marco-Environment
S.W. Tam & Magdelene Y.Y. Chan: Mass Spectrometric Studies - III. Mass Spectra of Some Chroman-4-One and Related Compounds
L.B. Trott: Preliminary Hydrographic Studies of Tolo Harbour
K.Y. Chan: A Review on the Genus Coelastrum (Chlorophyceae)
L.S. Chuang: Secular Variation of the Earth's Magnetic Field Intensity
(The above are in English with Chinese summaries)

The topical lecture is on Chinese Linguistics in the 20th Century by Chou Fa-kao.

PUBLICATION OF LIN YUTANG’S CHINESE-ENGLISH DICTIONARY OF MODERN USAGE

Lin Yutang’s Chinese-English Dictionary of Modern Usage

English lexicography by Mathews in 1931, significant changes and revolutionary discoveries have taken place in the fields of the humanities, art, social sciences, politics, science and technology, and the need for a more adequate and up-to-date reference work is greatly felt. The appearance of Dr. Lin Yutang’s dictionary is therefore welcomed not only by the academic world but also by the general public at large. This monumental work of Dr. Lin, first conceived in 1950, was brought to fruition in the last five years, during which he served as Research Professor of this University. Dr. Lin is uniquely qualified for such a task, being a linguistics expert and a bilingual writer of world renown. The new Dictionary, the first of its kind ever to give linguistic treatments to the Chinese language, has many distinctive features which make it outstanding and different from its predecessors:

1. Each WORD, mostly taken as a polysyllabic word formed by two or more characters instead of one single character, is shown on its levels of speech and its use is fully illustrated;
2. The Guoyuu Romanized System used is a built-in tonal system which deviates from the traditional treatment of the four tones, differentiating them neither by numbers nor by the use of diacritical marks over the word;
3. The Instant Index System, different from both the traditional 214 radicals and the Four Corners system, is a patented invention of Dr. Lin designed for easy location of lead characters;
4. The 180-page English Index, containing some 45,000 entries of polysyllabic words, phrases and idioms, is virtually an incorporated English-Chinese dictionary in itself;
5. Variants and popular forms in Chinese characters are fully indicated.

Another asset of the Dictionary is its Appendices, which not only provide invaluable information on sexagenary cycle, solar terms, weights, measures and numerals, dynasties and reigns, but also contain lists of chemical elements, the 214 radicals and simplified characters.

This new Dictionary, containing 1,800 pages of Bible paper, with a 7" x 10" format and weighing over 4 lbs., is printed by the well-known publisher Kenkyusha Printing Co. of Japan and the world-wide distribution is in the charge of America’s premier publishing house McGraw-Hill Inc.

FELLOWSHIP OF RSA FOR DR. CHOHING-MING LI & DR. C.T. YUNG

Dr. Choh-Ming Li, Vice-Chancellor, and Dr. C.T. Yung, President of Chung Chi College, have both been elected Fellows of The Royal Society of Arts. The Society, founded in 1754, has a long and distinguished record of serving as a liaison between the various practical arts and sciences, and it has always been a great honour to be elected to fellowship. The aims of the Society are indicated in its full title of "The Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures and Commerce".

PROFILES OF NEW PROFESSORS

Professor S.L. Kong, Director of School of Education

Professor S.L. Kong received his Ph.D. from the School of Psychology and Education, University of Ottawa, in 1960. He has been engaged in a wide range of activities in the fields of psychology, education and cybernetics: teaching, research, administration, planning, consultation, writing and editing. Based in Toronto in the last ten years, he has travelled extensively on tours of lectures, committee work and consultations to universities, business and governments. Dr. Kong has contributed to professional journals, university texts and is author of a series of monographs and books including the more recent titles of Education, Humanistic Psychology and Personalized Teaching and Cognitive Processes Applied to Education, which is now in the press. During the last few years, Professor Kong has been active in the organization of professional associations and symposia including the First World Congress of Comparative and International Education convened in Ottawa. He is founding Editor of Canadian and International Education and serves on the Editorial Board of Chinese Education. As a generalist, Professor Kong’s special interest is man as he is and as he becomes.

Professor Chu-Taing Li, Visiting Professor of Fine Arts

Professor Li is a 1943 graduate of the University of Nanking. He obtained his M.A. in English Literature and Ph.D. in Art History in 1949 and 1955 respectively, from the University of Iowa, where he taught for more than ten years from 1954. He joined the University of Kansas in 1966 as Professor and became Chairman of the Department of History of Art in 1972. He has been the Research Curator of the Nelson Gallery of Art, Kansas City since 1966.

Professor Li has been a member of the Phi Tau Phi Scholastic Honor Society since 1945, and was Visiting Fellow at Harvard and Princeton Universities in 1959-60, under the Ford Foundation Foreign Area Training Fellowship Program. He has lectured extensively in many American and Canadian universities and colleges, as well as museums in the United States, Taiwan and Hong Kong.

Professor Li is the author of The Autumn Colors on the Ch’iao and Hua Mountains, a Painting by Chou Meng-fu (1254-1322), and A Thousand Peaks and Myriad Ravines: The Charles A. Drenovetz Collection of Chinese Paintings in Zurich. He has also published numerous monographs and articles in a number of art journals.

Professor Clifford H. MacFadden, Director of the University of California Study Centre

Professor MacFadden obtained the degrees of B.A. in 1937, M.A. in 1939 and Ph.D. in 1948 from the University of Michigan. During the Second World War, he served with the War Department as Chief of Staff, M.I.S., Washington, D.C. from 1942 to 1946. He then joined the University of California, Los Angeles, as Professor and Chairman of the Department of Geography and Dean of Foreign Students. During special leaves from the

VICE-CHANCELLOR OPENS THE FIRST ART FESTIVAL OF THE HONG KONG FEDERATION OF STUDENTS

The Chinese Folk Art Nite held on 19th November, 1972 at Concert Hall, City Hall, marked the beginning of the 1st Art Festival sponsored by the Hong Kong Federation of Students (HKFS). At the opening ceremony, Dr. Choh-Ming Li, Vice-Chancellor of this University, delivered a speech in his capacity of patron of the Festival.

In his message, Dr. Li praised the HKFS for taking the lead in organizing such an unprecedented festival with the theme “Students, Fine Arts, Society”, through which students might establish a closer identity with the community. Emphasizing the significance of this first attempt of the HKFS, Dr. Li pointed out that the series of cultural activities that was going to take place would surely give Hong Kong’s youth many opportunities to develop their various artistic talents and power of appreciation.

Programmes of the Festival, which runs from November 1972 to March 1973, are varied. Apart from the Chinese Folk Art Nite, there are Western Folk Art Nite, Drama Competition, Exhibition of Students’ Artistic Works, Federation Choir Competition, International Students’ Salon and Students’ Experimential Film Festival.

香港專上學聯
第一屆藝術節開幕

香港專上學生聯會於十一月十九日晚，在大學會堂音樂廳舉行第一屆藝術節開幕典禮，並邀請藝術節贊助人李卓敏校長親臨主持。典禮完結後，本屆藝術節第一項節目即開始舉行：「中國民間藝術晚會」。

藝術節範圍甚廣，除中國民間藝術晚會外，尚有西方民間藝術會，聯辦比賽、學生活動等。藝術節贊助人李卓敏校長會親臨主持。本屆藝術節開幕典禮結束後，本屆藝術節計劃開辦中國藝術節、西方藝術節、學生活動節等，一直舉行至明年三月下旬，方吿結束。

李卓敏校長講詞
李校長在典禮中向嘉賓致詞，講詞全文如下：香港專上學生聯會多年來舉辦了很多有意義的學術和文娛活動，使大家對香港專上學生有了新的認識。這次香港專上學生聯會更進一步主辦第一屆藝術節，非但意義重大，而且令學生更深人社會、影響社會，並創造更好的文化條件。在這一方面，專上學生聯會顯然發揮了領導和團結的作用。

我們都知道香港的人口中，二十歲以下的年青人佔了很大的比例，幾乎是總人口的半數。這些年輕人，不少是在藝術方面有特別才能的，可惜他們往往沒有表現和發揮的機會。從每年的音樂節，我們會看到這麽許多年青人愛好音樂，而在音樂表演方面具有才能的為數也不少。音樂只不過是藝術的一種，其他藝術方面也有類似的情形。我們的社會如果讓藝術方面有才能的年青人埋沒了他們的天才，對社會來說是一種極大的浪費。

我們必須承認一個基本事實，所謂增加出入人口數字、增加就業人數、增加國民總收人，固然非常重要，但這只不過是一種方式，並不是人生的終極目的。我們要提高生活水準，不祇為了一時的吃得好一點、住得舒服一點，而是為了我們的生存和精神生活更豐富、更美好、更有意義。

這次專上學生聯會主辦的藝術節，一方面給予年青人以欣賞藝術和發揮才能的機會，養成他們欣賞美好事物的習慣，並刺激他們的創作天才，另一方面，因藝術具有普通性，可以使青年人和社會各界各階層人士更形接近，心靈由此互相溝通，建立良好的文化條件。在這一方面，專上學生聯會顯然發揮了領導和團結的作用。

尤其令我高興的是，這次的藝術節範圍非常之廣，連攝影和實驗電影都包括在內。各種藝術本來應該互相影響和互相借鏡，所以古時中國人六藝並稱，中古歐洲統稱爲七藝。這次第一屆藝術節提出「學生、藝術與社會」為主題，可見同學們對這問題考慮得非常周到，真是令人鼓舞的現象。我希望這三個重要的因素，在將來專上學生聯會的活動中，繼續發生同樣的作用。
