FIFTEENTH CONGREGATION

The Fifteenth Congregation of the University, for the conferment of honorary degrees and other degrees, was held on 17th October, 1974 at the City Hall. His Excellency the Governor and Chancellor of the University, Sir Murray MacLehose, presided at the ceremony.

At the Congregation, the Chancellor conferred the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa on four eminent persons, Mr. J.S. Lee, a prominent businessman in Hong Kong and a member of the University Council since its inception, who has contributed significantly to the promotion of Chinese Studies in the University; Dr. the Hon. P.C. Woo, a well-known solicitor and unofficial member of the Executive Council in Hong Kong, who rendered invaluable service to the University as member of the Provisional Council and University Council since its establishment; Professor C.K. Yang, Distinguished Service Professor of the University of Pittsburgh, and a world-renowned sociologist; and Dr. C.T. Yung, President of Chung Chi College and the first Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University, who has played a highly significant role in the planning and operation of the University.

Prof. Yang addressed the Congregation on behalf of the honorary graduates. (Prof. Yang’s speech and the citations are published in a Special Supplement of The University Bulletin.)

70 Master’s degrees and 581 Bachelor’s degrees were conferred on graduates of the University: 36 Masters of Philosophy, 25 Masters of Business Administration, 4 Masters of Science, 5 Masters of Arts, 165 Bachelors of Arts, 154 Bachelors of Science, 90 Bachelors of Business Administration and 172 Bachelors of Social Science.

WILLIAMSBURG IV CONFERENCE

The Williamsburg IV Conference, convened by Mr. John D. Rockefeller III, was held in Hong Kong from 27th to 30th October with Dr. Choh-Ming Li, the Vice-Chancellor, as host. Forty participants from thirteen countries including politicians, diplomats, businessmen and scholars, were invited to the Conference in their personal capacities.

The central concern of the Conference was to reconsider the social and economic vulnerabilities and potentialities of nations of the Pacific Region in the aftermath of the changes in energy and raw material availabilities over the past year.

The first session of the Conference was held at the Conference Hall of this University.
1974 MEETING OF ASIAN BUSINESS SCHOOLS

The 1974 Meeting of Asian Business Schools was held in Hong Kong from 28th to 30th November, hosted by the Lingnan Institute of Business Administration of this University. It was attended by senior teachers and administrators from eight business schools and management institutes in Bangladesh, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Hong Kong. Problems in Management education of this region were discussed, and topics for the Meeting were: (1) A Framework for Measuring the Effectiveness of Public Enterprises; (2) The Role of Computers in Management Education; (3) The Effect of the Local Business Environment on Management Education; and (4) Entrepreneurship and the Development of Small Businesses: the Role of Management Education.

DEDICATION CEREMONY OF UNIVERSITY SWIMMING POOL

A Dedication Ceremony of the University Swimming Pool was held on 11th October. Mr. John L. Soong, Chairman of the Fund Raising Campaign for the Construction of the Swimming Pool, addressed the assembly and Mr. Charles T. Cross, the American Consul-General in Hong Kong, unveiled the plaque of the Pool.

The University Swimming Pool, an ancillary facility of the Benjamin Franklin Centre, was constructed with donations from the US State Department, The Asia Foundation and the American business community in Hong Kong. This Olympic standard Swimming Pool with 1-metre and 3-metre diving boards and a 5-metre/10-metre diving platform was completed last summer, and has since played an important part in the University’s programmes for physical education and recreation.

PUBLICATION OF AN ETYMOLOGICAL DICTIONARY OF ANCIENT CHINESE BRONZE INSCRIPTIONS

An Etymological Dictionary of Ancient Chinese Bronze Inscriptions, edited by Prof. Chou Fa-kao, Professor of Chinese Language and Literature of this University, and his assistants, Cheung Yat-shing, Tsui Chee-ye and Lam Kit-ming, will be published by the University. The compilation of this 16-volume Dictionary which is based on Yung Keng’s Chin Wen Pien and has 1,900 entries, 3,000,000 words and 10,000 pages, took seven years. The Etymological Dictionary will be a great help to the study of ancient Chinese, Chinese history, archaeology and art.

EXHIBITION OF CHINESE PAINTINGS AND ANTIQUITIES

The Art Gallery, Institute of Chinese Studies is holding an Exhibition of Chinese Paintings and Antiquities from 11th October. The exhibits mainly consist of paintings by the Chieh Shan School of Lingnan—Chu Ch’ao, Chu Lien and their disciples. The Chu brothers were skilful painters of birds, insects, animals, flowers and plants and their style had far-reaching influence. Other items on display include Sung rubbings of the Hua-shan Temple Stele and the Lan-t’ing Preface, ancient bronze seals and lacquer ware, mostly plain lacquer ware with basketwork, painting in colour, gold tracery or mother-of-pearl inlay.

Asian University Business School Conference

The Asian University Business School Conference was held from November 28 to 30, 1974, in Hong Kong. The conference, held by the Lingnan Institute of Business Administration, brought together professors and lecturers from universities in the Philippines, India, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Thailand, Singapore, Malaysia, and Hong Kong.

The conference aims to discuss and find solutions to issues in business management. The topics covered include: (1) the measurement of public service efficiency, (2) the application of computers in business management, (3) the influence of local business environments on management, and (4) the development of small enterprises and investment in business management.

University Swimming Pool Opening

The Chinese University swimming pool was opened on October 11, with speeches by the chairman of the fund-raising committee, Mr. Song Qiyun, and Mr. Charles T. Cross, U.S. Consul General.

The swimming pool is a facility for the students and staff of the university, and its construction and equipment were funded by the U.S. Department of State, the China Association, and the Hong Kong American Business Association. The pool meets Olympic standards and has a 1-meter and 3-meter diving board, as well as 5-meter and 10-meter diving platforms.

"Jin Wen Zhi Lin" Publication

"Jin Wen Zhi Lin," a 14-volume dictionary of ancient Chinese bronze inscriptions, was published by the university. The dictionary was compiled by Professor Zhou Fagao over seven years with contributions from Professor Zhang Risheng, Xu Zhiyi, and Lin Jieming. The dictionary contains nearly 100,000 characters, 1.8 million words, and 80,000 inscriptions.

The dictionary is based on the third edition of "Jin Wen" and includes 1,900 characters, 18,000 inscriptions, 3,100 inscriptions, and 10,000 inscriptions, with footnotes and commentary. The dictionary is expected to be beneficial for the study of ancient Chinese bronze inscriptions, history, archaeology, and art.
